

Effective beginning Academic Year 2022-23 (Last revised August 14, 2023)

The following table outlines how transfer credits will be applied to the Bachelor of Arts in Art History degree at Miami University for students who completed an Associate of Arts degree via the Ohio Guaranteed Art History Transfer Pathway. The OGTP designation guarantees the transfer and applicability of credits, but does not guarantee admission to a program. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive, and students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.

Advising Notes: ¹ A student may be able to complete a different architectural history course. This will be determined after a review of a student's transfer coursework in introductory art history. ² Assumes that the student has completed the first two semesters of selected foreign language prior to entering Miami University, or that credit has been earned via an approved Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate exam through the end of the beginning level (or higher). The College of Arts & Sciences (CAS) requires that students earn credit in a foreign language at or beyond the 202-level. ³ Miami University requires a total of 124 credit hours for degree completion. The total number of hours to complete the bachelor's degree represents a range of hours that may be needed depending on the individual course selections made during the associate degree program.
