

The following table outlines how transfer credits will be applied to the Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology degree at Wright State University for students who completed an Associate of Arts degree via the Ohio Guaranteed Anthropology Transfer Pathway. The OGTP designation guarantees the transfer and applicability of credits, but does not guarantee admission to a program. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive, and students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.

Advising Notes: (*) Indicates that coursework will be evaluated for applicable equivalency upon transfer at the university. If a Transfer Assurance Guide (TAG) course is taken, the approved course equivalency will be awarded. ¹ One course must be a biological science course. Only one natural sciences lab is required. In some cases, taking one Biological Science and one Physical Science is preferred. Check with your receiving institution.

The following additional coursework will be required to complete the Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology degree at Wright State University after a student has completed their Associate of Arts Ohio Guaranteed Anthropology Transfer Pathway degree. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive and admission into the program is not guaranteed. Students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.
