Ohio Family to Family Virtual Information Session

Thursday, April 3, 2025
7:00 PM to 8:30 PM | Online via Zoom

An Overview of Health Care Coverage Options for Kids with Special Needs

This session will cover the basics about navigating private insurance, Medicaid, managed care, and programs that can help pay for out-of-pocket expenses, copays and uncovered health expenses. We'll also cover grant options and where to find more information.

Amy Clawson

Program Coordinator & Northern Ohio Family Support Specialist, Ohio Family to Family

Amy has 27 years' experience in various family support roles. She helps families navigate Ohio's disability, community, and health systems for children and adults with special needs. Amy is a parent of an adult with complex disabilities.

Lynne Fogel

Parent Consultant, Complex Medical Help (CMH), Ohio Department of Health

Lynne has worked in a family support role for over 20 years, and has navigated private insurance, Medicaid and CMH services for her daughter with special healthcare needs.
