CIVILIAN LABOR FORCE ESTIMATES

Contents

This table presents average annual civilian labor force estimates, including the employed, the unemployed, and the unemployment rates for the last six years. National estimates are rounded to the nearest 1,000. Unemployment rates are calculated by dividing annual average estimates of the unemployed by the labor force, multiplying the result by 100, and rounding to the nearest tenth of a percent. The labor force includes persons in the non-institutional civilian population who are at least 16 years old, and who are employed or unemployed. The unemployed include people who did not work during the survey reference week, but who were available and looking for work as well as those waiting to be called back to a job from which they were laid off. The unemployed exclude those on vacation or missing work due to illness. The estimates for 2024 are initial, while those for 2019 through 2023 may have been revised. Unlike the preceding tables from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, figures in this section describe an area's residents, not the jobs in the area.
