Recommendation:

The above listed Miami University preparation programs meet the Chancellor's requirements for program approval and the State Board of Education's minimum standards for Educator Preparation programs. Approval is recommended until the Spring 2028 review cycle. The Chancellor may, in his judgement, withdraw approval or require an additional review if Miami University fails to meet the Chancellor's standards for Educator Preparation programs (including audits for standard alignment and audits for science of reading requirements) or fails to receive accreditation from the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), the Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation (AAQEP), or the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP)

Profile:

Miami University is a public university. The University was founded in 1809, opening its doors in 1824 with a specific mission to build success through an unwavering commitment to liberal arts undergraduate education and the active engagement of its students in both curricular and cocurricular life. Located in Oxford, Ohio, the university has an enrollment of more than 17,000 undergraduate and nearly 3,000 graduate students.

Accreditation/Authorization:

Miami University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) until its next scheduled review in 2026. Miami University's educator preparation programs are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) until the next review in 2030.
