Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code (“R.C.”) 3953.33 and Ohio Administrative Code (“OAC”) 3901-7-01, every individual title insurance agent (“individual agent”) and business entity title insurance agent (“business entity agent”) (collectively, “agents”) handling escrow accounts (including settlement, closing, and security deposit accounts) must have an independent review of such accounts completed each year. Each agent must file either an independent annual review or an annual review claim of exemption with the Ohio Department of Insurance (“Department”).

All agents are encouraged to utilize the Department’s user-friendly, web-based Annual Title Review System to file their annual reviews for the filing period. The system, which can be accessed via the Department’s website (www.insurance.ohio.gov), captures all information requested on the Annual Title Agent Review Form (INS3283) and streamlines the submission of annual reviews. To obtain a user name and password for the Annual Title Review Filing System, please visit the featured link entitled “2024 Annual Title Filing Instructions” on the Department’s website.

For further information on the requirements related to the annual review, all agents should thoroughly review R.C. 3953.33 and OAC 3901-7-01.
