

Your Tax Refund: You Earned It, Now Claim It!

As much as $6,044 or more could be waiting for you!

Earned Income Tax Credit

Did you work in 2013? You may be eligible for the Earned Income Tax Credit—even if you don't owe income tax.

If you worked in 2013:

- Did you have one child living with you? Did you earn less than $37,870 by yourself or $43,210 if you are married and filing jointly? You may be eligible for an earned income tax credit of up to $3,250.
- Did you have 2 children living with you? Did you earn less than $43,038 by yourself or $48,378 if you are married and filing jointly? You may be eligible for an earned income tax credit of up to $5,372.
- Did you have 3 children living with you? Did you earn less than $46,227 by yourself or $51,567 if you are married and filing jointly? You may be eligible for an earned income tax credit of up to $6,044.
- If you had no children living with you, did you earn less than $14,340 in 2013 by yourself or $19,680 if you are married and filing jointly? Were you between the ages of 25 and 64? You may be eligible for an earned income tax credit of up to $487.

Child Tax Credit

Many families that earned more than $3,000 in 2013 may qualify for the Child Tax Credit refund of up to $1,000 for each qualifying child under the age of 17.

American Opportunity Tax Credit

If you are a student in your first four years of college, if you were enrolled at least part-time in 2013, if you paid for tuition and/or related course material, and if you had an adjusted gross income of less than $80,000 if you are single or $160,000 if you are married, you may be eligible for an American Opportunity Tax Credit of up to $2,500.

Free Tax Assistance

The Ohio Benefit Bank (OBB) offers free help preparing taxes for households using the married filing jointly status with incomes up to $95,000, and for households using any other filing status with incomes up to $65,000. Trained counselors and staff are available across the state. For more information or to find an OBB site near you, go to <http://www.ohiobenefits.org> or call toll-free (800)-648-1176.

The Internal Revenue Service also offers free tax help. If you made $52,000 or less, you can get help through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. If you are 60 or older, you can get help through the Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) program. To find a VITA or TCE site near you, go to <http://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Free-Tax-Return-Preparation-for-You-by-Volunteers> or call toll-free (800) 906-9887.
