

Comprehensive Primary Care (CPC) for Kids Program Bonus Payment

2025

Department of
Medicaid

CPC for Kids Bonus Payment

Overview

Annual lump-sum payment that is contingent upon high performance on the CPC for Kids bonus activities relative to others participating in the program

Scoring is risk-adjusted

Performance is evaluated annually by an external quality review organization (EQRO) procured by ODM

CPC for Kids Bonus Payment

Activities

Bonus Activities

- Additional supports for children in the custody of a title IV-E agency
- Integration of behavioral health services
- School-based health care linkages
- Transitions of care
- Oral evaluation, dental services

Details on these activities can be found at :
<https://medicaid.ohio.gov/resources-for-providers/special-programs-and-initiatives/payment-innovation/comprehensive-primary-care/requirements1>

CPC for Kids Bonus Payment

Evaluation

Those exceeding expectations and performing on an exceptional level in the bonus activities can be eligible to receive a CPC for Kids bonus payment

ODM's EQRO annually conducts activity monitoring reviews for this purpose

The EQRO conducts these reviews either virtually or in-person using a scoring system

CPC for Kids Bonus Payment

Awards

$2 million is awarded to the highest performers on the CPC for Kids bonus activities

- One $500,000 award
- Two $250,000 award
- Ten $100,000 award

Awardees are determined after finalization of the corresponding performance year's CPC shared savings total cost of care results

Department of
Medicaid