Section 1: Introduction and Overview

Executive Summary

Crime in Ohio Offenses - Overview and Method

This report summarizes law enforcement incident reports of all crimes for the State of Ohio during the years 2016-2023. We summarize this data for all crimes against property, persons, and society. We provide crime rates throughout this report, and it is important to understand how we calculated them and what they mean.

First, we calculate offense totals by counting the number of offenses documented within each law enforcement incident report. We count one offense for each victim of a Crime Against Person, one offense for each distinct operation of a Crime Against Property (except for Motor Vehicle Theft, where one offense is counted for each stolen vehicle), and one offense for each Crime Against Society.

Next, we calculate the rate of crime by dividing the count of offenses by the population total¹ and then multiplying the resulting number (the quotient) by 100,000. This yields a crime rate per 100,000 persons. We provide Ohio's overall crime rates over time, as well as crime totals broken down by crime categories.

Overall Findings

Between 2016 and 2023:

- Total crime decreased by 19.4% from 8,797.6 to 7,087.3 per 100,000 individuals.
- Crimes against property decreased by 26.3% from 4,209.7 to 3,103.6 per 100,000 individuals.
 - Larceny/Theft is the most frequent property offense, and it decreased by 21.3%.
 - * Most types of theft decreased, but there were substantial increases in motor vehicle thefts and theft of vehicle parts/accessories.
 - Motor Vehicle Thefts increased by 61.5%.
 - Theft of Vehicle Parts/Accessories increased by 18%.
 - * Theft from Motor Vehicles decreased by 34.8%.
 - * Stolen Property Offenses decreased by 29%.
 - * Shoplifting decreased by 12.3%.
 - * Theft From Building decreased by 58%.
 - Property Damage decreased by 20.7%.
 - Burglary/B&E decreased by 57.7%.
 - Fraud decreased by 14.7%.
 - * There was a very large increase in identity theft during early 2021, though it returned to normal levels shortly thereafter. Aside from this, fraud has generally decreased.
- Crimes against persons decreased by 9.1% from 1,892.2 to 1,720.6 per 100,000 individuals.
 - While crimes against persons decreased overall, there was an increase in certain assault and sex offenses.
 - * Aggravated Assault increased by 21.2%.
 - * Fondling increased by 2.4%.
 - All other crimes against persons offenses decreased.
 - * Simple Assaults are the most frequent type of Assault, and decreased by 2.5%.
 - * Intimidation decreased by 20.5%.
 - * Robbery decreased by 52.6%.
 - * Human Trafficking/Kidnapping decreased by 13.1%.
 - * Homicide decreased by 5.6%.
 - * Rape decreased by 8.9%.

¹Since OIBRS data do not cover the entire population of Ohio, rates were created using the Ohio population covered by agencies that submit complete data to OIBRS for each specific year to adjust population denominators for calculations. Between 2016-2023, on average, 77% of the Ohio population was covered by complete reporting agencies. Please see the 'Data' section and the 'Methodology for Rates' section in the Appendix for further explanation.

- * Statutory Rape decreased by 53.9%.
 - * Incest decreased by 24.3%.
- Crimes against society decreased by 17.9% from 1,808.8 to 1,484.9 per 100,000 individuals. This decrease was driven by a substantial decline in drug/alcohol offenses that started during early 2020.
 - Alcohol/Drug offenses are the most frequent, though they decreased by 24.9%.
 - Disorderly Conduct/Trespass/Loitering offenses decreased by 8.1%.
 - Weapon Law Violations increased by 29.2%.
 - Other Crimes Against Society decreased by 27.1%.
- All Other Offenses decreased by 7.9% from 832.6 to 766.6 per 100,000 individuals.

Introduction

Reliable and accurate crime data are needed to inform the public, develop and implement evidence-based criminal justice policies, facilitate effective law enforcement strategies, and ensure community safety. A primary source of crime data in the U.S. is the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program, which collects data from law enforcement agencies. Figure 1 shows the rate of violent and property crime in the U.S. and Ohio from 1985 - 2020 using data from the UCR program. This figure shows that violent and property crime have decreased in both the U.S. and Ohio since 1985, and that property crime is much more frequent than violent crime. It also shows that Ohio has a lower violent crime rate than the U.S., while the property crime rate is similar.

To enhance UCR program, the FBI developed the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS). This system collects supplementary information about criminal incidents, and a broader range of crime categories beyond property and violent crime. The goal of this report is to use data from Ohio's NIBRS program to provide information about different types of crime in Ohio.

Data

Data for this report are taken from the Ohio Incident-Based Reporting System (OIBRS), a voluntary crime reporting program that enables law enforcement agencies in Ohio to submit crime data directly to the state and federal government. OIBRS contains detailed information about criminal incidents, and is used to generate official crime statistics for the state of Ohio. Participation in OIBRS has increased over the years. Figure 2 shows the percent of the state population covered by law enforcement agencies that participated in OIBRS (i.e. submitted at least one incident report to the system), as well as the agencies that reported complete data to the system for a full year. This report contains data from agencies that provided complete data to OIBRS for individual years between 2016 - 2023. Data from unfounded incidents are also excluded from this report.

Report Organization

Crimes in OIBRS have both federal and state crime codes. There are 64 federal codes based on the FBI's National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS), and 1,393 state codes from the Ohio Revised Code (ORC). To organize the large number of crime codes, this report presents data in several increasingly detailed sections:

- Section 1: Introduction and Overview - This section provides a summary of the key findings from the report, an introduction and information on the data used in this report, including information on how rates were created and used throughout the report.
- Section 2: Total Crime - This section provides a high-level overview of crime in Ohio by including information about the total crime rate per year and month.
- Section 3: Crime Categories - This section divides the crimes from Section 1 in to four broad categories: crimes against property, crimes against persons, crimes against society, and other crimes. These categories are defined below.
- Sections 4, 5 and 6 - Crimes Against Property, Persons, Society, and Other Crimes- Sections 4, 5, and 6 divide the crime categories from Section 2 in to smaller subcategories by grouping together NIBRS codes. These sections include the following information:
 - Section 4: Crimes Against Property - Crimes against property seek to obtain money, property, or some other benefit, and can be broken in to four subcategories: Theft, Fraud, Property Damage, and Burglary/B&E.
 - Section 5: Crimes Against Persons - Crimes against persons are crimes where the victim is always an individual, and can be broken in to five subcategories: Assault, Sex Offenses, Robbery, Human Trafficking/Kidnapping, and Homicide.
 - Section 6: Crimes Against Society - Crimes against society are crimes that represent society's prohibition against engaging in certain types of activities, and are typically victim-less crimes in which property is not the object. They can be divided in to four subcategories: Alcohol/Drug Violations, Conduct Violations, Weapon Law Violations, and Pornography/Prostitution Violations.
 - Other Crimes - The NIBRS "All Other Offenses" category includes bribery, extortion/blackmail, gambling offenses and other ORC crimes that do not fall into the other categories. These 'other' ORC crimes make up about 10% of all offenses reported annually by Ohio law enforcement agencies (i.e., about 75,000 offenses). The seven ORC offenses listed below are the most frequently reported "Other" offenses. Together, these seven offenses comprise 64% of all "Other" offenses, about 52,000 a year statewide:
 - * Failure to Appear; Issuance of Warrant (about 15% of "other" offenses - 12,000 reports annually)
 - * Obstructing official business (about 12% of "other" offenses - 10,000 reports annually)
 - * Telecommunications harassment (about 12% of "other" offenses - 10,000 reports annually)
 - * Unruly Juvenile offenses (about 8% of "other" offenses - 6,000 reports annually)
 - * Violate protection order or consent agreement (about 8% of "other" offenses - 6,000 reports annually)
 - * Unauthorized use of motor vehicle (about 6% of "other" offenses - 5,000 reports annually)
 - * Resisting arrest (about 5% of "other" offenses - 4,000 reports annually)

Disclaimers

- Some law enforcement agencies do not report their data to OIBRS because it is a voluntary reporting system. For this reason, data are presented as rates instead of totals, and only data from agencies that provided complete annual data are included for a given year.
- The accuracy of these crime statistics is based on the information reported by participating law enforcement agencies. Information in this report may change over time based on updated or new data sent to OIBRS in future crime data submissions.
- This report only contains descriptive data, which means that the information in this report does not describe why crime occurs, what factors cause an increase or decrease in crime, or make recommendations about what should be done to reduce crime.

Section 2: Total Crime

- Figure 3 shows that the total crime rate in Ohio decreased by 19.4% between 2016 and 2023.

- Figure 4 shows the data from Figure 3 by month and year. This figure demonstrates that crime is seasonal, and typically peaks in the summer before decreasing during the rest of the year.
- The data in this report will typically be shown first in a figure with only the year so that it is easy to see the overall trend. This will be followed by a figure with the same data by month and year so that seasonal patterns and monthly changes can be easily observed.

Section 3: Crime Categories

- Figure 5 displays crime rates for crimes against persons, property, society, and other crimes.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Crimes against property are the most frequent type of crime, though these crimes decreased by 26.3%.
 - Crimes against persons and society are the next most frequent types of crime. Crimes against society decreased by 17.9%, crimes against persons decreased by 9.1%.
- The crime rate for the All Other Offenses² category remained nearly the same between 2016 and 2023.

²The NIBRS “All Other Offenses” crimes includes bribery, extortion/blackmail, gambling offenses and other ORC crimes that do not fall into the other categories. These ‘other’ ORC crimes make up about 10% of all offenses reported annually by Ohio law enforcement agencies (i.e., about 75,000 offenses). See ‘Report Organization’ for further details.

- Figure 6 shows the same data as Figure 5 by month and year. This shows that the four categories of crime generally follow similar seasonal trends.
- This figure shows a large decrease in crimes against society in early 2020. This was caused by a substantial decrease in Alcohol/Drug offenses (see Figures 23 and 24).

Section 4: Crimes Against Property

- Figure 7 shows the same data as Figure 5 with crimes against property highlighted.

- Figure 8 shows the annual trends for the four crimes against property subcategories: Larceny/Theft, Fraud, Property Damage, and Burglary/B&E.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Larceny/Theft is the most frequent crime against property, and it decreased by 21.3%. The Larceny/Theft subcategory contains several different NIBRS codes (see Figures 10 - 13).
 - The next most frequent crimes against property are Property Damage (which decreased by 20.7%.
 - Burglary/B&E decreased by 57.7%.
 - Fraud decreased by 14.7%. The Fraud subcategory contains several different NIBRS codes (see Figures 14 - 16).

- Figure 9 shows the same data as Figure 8 by month and year.
- Most of the crimes against property subcategories follow the typical seasonal crime pattern.
- Fraud increased significantly in early 2021 due to a substantial increase in identity theft (see Figures 14 and 15).

- The next few pages show trends for some of the individual NIBRS crime codes in the Larceny/Theft subcategory. Figure 10 shows the Larceny/Theft NIBRS codes related to vehicles.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Theft from Motor Vehicles decreased by 34.8%.
 - Motor Vehicle Theft increased by 61.5%.
 - Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts or Accessories increased by 18%.

- Figure 11 has the same data as Figure 10 by month and year.
- Motor Vehicle Theft does not show the same seasonal trends as other types of crime, as it remains high in the later parts of the year, unlike other crimes which typically decrease.

- Figure 12 shows the Larceny/Theft NIBRS codes that aren't related to vehicles.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Stolen Property Offenses decreased by 29%.
 - Shoplifting decreased by 12.3%.
 - Theft From Building decreased by 58%.
- Between 2016 to 2021, shoplifting decreased by 32.3%, but increased by 29.5% between 2021 and 2023.

- Figure 13 has the same data as Figure 12 by month and year.
- Shoplifting and Theft from Buildings don't have the typical seasonal pattern as other crimes in this report.

- Figure 14 shows some of the individual NIBRS codes for the Fraud subcategory.
- Identity Theft is the most frequent type of Fraud, and it increased by 95.2% between 2016 and 2021 before decreasing in 2022 and 2023.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Counterfeiting/Forgery decreased by 36.5%.
 - Credit Card/ATM Fraud decreased by 38.9%.
 - False Pretenses decreased by 18.7%.
 - All Other Fraud increased by 14.4%.

- Identity Fraud is the only crime included in Figure 15, because it increased so substantially in late 2020 and early 2021 that the other types of Fraud would barely be visible on this graph if they were included. The other types of Fraud are shown instead in Figure 16 on the next page.
- After the large increase in Identity Fraud, it decreased to nearly previous levels in May of 2021.

- Figure 16 shows the rate of all other Fraud offenses by month and year.
- These crimes do not display the same seasonal pattern as most of the other types of crime in this report.

Section 5: Crimes Against Persons

- Figure 17 shows the same data as Figure 5 with crimes against persons highlighted.

- When graphed together, it is difficult to see trends for the crimes against persons that are not Assaults. These crimes are shown separately in Figure 21.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Assaults decreased by 5.6%. The Assault subcategory contains several different NIBRS codes, which are shown in Figures 19 and 20.

- Figure 19 shows the rates for the individual NIBRS codes in the Assault subcategory.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Simple Assaults are the most frequent type of Assault, and decreased by 2.5%.
 - Intimidation decreased by 20.5%.
 - Aggravated Assaults increased by 21.2%.

- Figure 20 shows the same data as Figure 18 by month and year. It demonstrates that Assaults follow the typical seasonal pattern of crime.

- Figure 21 shows the rate of the non-Assault crime by persons subcategories by year.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Robbery decreased by 52.6%.
 - Sex Offenses decreased by 6.9%.
 - Human Trafficking/Kidnapping decreased by 13.1%.
 - Homicide decreased by 5.6%.
- While the Human Trafficking/Kidnapping, Homicide, and Sex Offenses subcategories contain multiple NIBRS codes, the trends for these individual codes mirror the overall trend for the subcategory. For this reason, these crimes are not examined in further detail in this report.

- Figure 22 shows the non-Assault crime against persons subcategories by month and year.
- In general, Homicide is the only non-Assault crime against person subcategory that follows the typical seasonal pattern for crime.
- Sex offense rates, for most years, peaked in January, and this is not typical for most crimes. This does not necessarily mean that more sex offenses occurred in January of these years, but could be the result of unknown 'dates and times' when an incident is reported at a later date resulting in the default of January 1 for the identified year. There are many instances of sexual assault that are reported at a later date than when they occurred.

- Figure 23 shows sex offense subcategories by year. There are four offenses that make up the overall ‘sex offenses’ category and these include: rape, fondling, statutory rape and incest.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Rape decreased by 8.9%.
 - Fondling increased by 2.4%.
 - Statutory Rape decreased by 53.9%.
 - Incest decreased by 24.3%.

- Figure 24 shows the sex offenses subcategories by month and year. In general, these offenses do not follow the typical pattern of crime.
- All crimes represented on this graph for sex offense subcategories, for most years and crimes, had high rates in January of each year. This is not typical for most crimes. This does not necessarily mean that more sex offenses occurred in January of these years, but could be the result of unknown ‘dates and times’ when an incident is reported at a later date resulting in the default of January 1 for the identified year. There are many instances of sexual assault that are reported at a later date than when they occurred.

Section 6: Crimes Against Society

- Figure 25 shows the same data as Figure 5 with crimes against society highlighted.

- Figure 26 shows the annual trends of the five subcategories of crimes against society: Alcohol/Drug, Disorderly Conduct/Trespassing/Loitering, Weapon Law Violations, and Other Crimes Against Society³.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Alcohol/Drug offenses are the most frequent, though they decreased by 24.9%. The Alcohol/Drug subcategory contains several different NIBRS codes, which are shown in Figures 26 and 27.
 - Disorderly Conduct/Trespass/Loitering offenses decreased by 8.1%.
 - Weapon Law Violations increased by 29.2%.
 - Other Crimes Against Society decreased by 27.1%.

³The Other Crimes Against Society category contain NIBRS codes 370(Pornography/Obscene Material), 39A(Betting/Wagering), 39B(Operating/Promoting/Assisting Gambling), 39C(Gambling Equipment Violations), 39D(Sports Tampering), 40A(Prostitution), 40B(Assisting or Promoting Prostitution), 40C(Purchasing Prostitution), 720(Animal Cruelty), 90F(Family Offenses, Nonviolent), and 90H(Peeping Tom).

- Figure 28 shows the rates for individual NIBRS codes in the Alcohol/Drug category.
- Between 2016 and 2023:
 - Drug Violations decreased by 24%.
 - Drug Equipment Violations decreased by 33.5%.
 - DUIs⁴ decreased by 9.6%.
 - Liquor law violations decreased by 28.6%.
 - Drunkenness decreased by 26.7%.

⁴Though data from the Ohio State Highway Patrol are included throughout this report, DUIs are currently omitted until a data processing issue can be resolved.

Figure 29: Drug and Alcohol-Related Offense Rate per 100,000 population by Month, 2016 - 2023

- Figure 29 shows the same data as Figure 26, broken down by month. It demonstrates that there was a substantial decrease in drug/alcohol violations during early 2020.

Appendix

Definitions

NIBRS Offense Definitions:

The offenses in this report are defined by the FBI and were developed for NIBRS. These definitions represent a way of categorizing crimes committed throughout the United States. Each offense has an associated Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Offense Code.

Crimes Against Property

Crimes against property seek to obtain money, property, or some other benefit. The four crimes against property subcategories include:

- Larceny/Theft
 - Pocket-picking (23A): The theft of articles from another person's physical possession by stealth where the victim usually does not become immediately aware of the theft.
 - Purse-snatching (23B): The grabbing or snatching of a purse, handbag, etc. from the physical possession of another person.
