

DISCOVER YOUR NEXT ADVENTURE WITH OHIO STATE PARKS

Explore more than 5,000 miles of land and water trails. Canoers, kayakers, and boaters have a lot of ground to cover in our 64 lakes. There's natural beauty on the hilltops, across the fields, and in the cool ravines and streams.

Free to visit, the possibilities are endless!

PLAN YOUR GETAWAY TODAY!

Whether you like camping in the woods, staying cozy in a fully equipped cabin, or prefer the modern facilities offered at a state park lodge, Ohio State Parks offer you a wide range of choices.

CAMPGROUNDS

With 60 campgrounds to choose from, you'll easily find the perfect site to spend your nights under the stars. Sites range from full-service to primitive; many are pet friendly. Modern showerhouses, camp stores, and nature centers are a few of the amenities offered. Reservations may be made up to six months in advance.

CAMPER CABINS

Reservations for state park lodges and their deluxe cabins may be made up to one year in advance by visiting greatohiolodges.com. To make reservations for Geneva State Park's lodge and cottages, visit thelodgeatgeneva.com.

To book Buck Creek, Cowan Lake, Dillon, Mohican, Pike, or Pymatuning year-round cabins or the specialty cabins at Malabar or North Bass Island, visit reserveohio.com or call (866) 644-6727.

CABINS

Prefer modern conveniences? Choose a cabin, which is available year-round and accommodates up to six. With a variety of styles, most cabins feature two bedrooms, bathroom with shower, living room, and full kitchen. Reservations may be made up to one year in advance.

LODGES

Ohio offers nine modern state park lodge and conference centers. Each provides a full-service experience set in rustic surroundings. Guests will find updated guest rooms, dining rooms, and swimming pools, plus professional facilities for all types of events and group gatherings.
