Under Ohio Administrative Code, no person shall at any time take, hunt, kill, pursue, or shoot at any wildlife or wild animals by any means within four hundred feet of any camping area, overnight facility or area, picnic area, shelter house, latrine, parking lot or other structure; nor shall any person at any time shoot on, from, or across any road, driveway, or trail within any area administered by the division.

The park offers several areas that are open to trapping, gun and bow hunting for deer and other game in season, including hunting of game birds. Bow hunting for deer only is permitted in two designated areas south of State Route 85. The areas of the (Ohio) state park north of State Route 85 are open to early goose and teal season as well as for the special Veterans/ Youth waterfowl hunt. All hunters that are hunting the Ohio side of the reservoir must follow Ohio seasons and bag limits. All islands are considered part of the State of Pennsylvania, waterfowl hunters hunting from islands on the Ohio side of the reservoir must have a PA hunting license and follow Ohio's season dates and bag limits. Beaver trapping on State of Ohio lands by permit only.
