REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

These causes came on due to Appellant's December 10, 2014 filing wherein Appellant questioned why Appellee, Department of Public Safety (DPS), paid out only 55 percent of Appellant's accumulated sick leave balance, following Appellant's retirement, effective November 29, 2014. The records reflect that Appellant's last date of work was November 28, 2014. Further, the records appear to reflect that Appellant chose to retire at this time so that he could take advantage of certain significant OPERS retiree healthcare coverage options, since those options expired shortly thereafter.

On January 29, 2015, a pre-hearing was held in these matters. On March 23, 2015, DPS filed: a motion to dismiss; a memorandum in support; the affidavit of Daniel DeNiro, a DPS Human Capital Management Manager; and two pertinent exhibits. On April 7, 2015, Appellant filed: a motion to award; a memorandum in support; and a response to the Administrative Law Judge's directive.

Appellant asserts that he should have received a payout of 80 percent of his allowable sick leave balance upon his retirement. However, he only received 55 percent of that balance and, accordingly, seeks the dollar amount that this 25 percent differential represents.

Conversely, DPS has asserted that, because Appellant chose to retire, he was only eligible for the 55 percent payout of his allowable sick leave balance upon his retirement. There is no dispute that Appellant did receive his 55 percent cash-out and the parties disagree only about Appellant's assertion regarding the additional 25 percent differential.

R.C. 124.384 is entitled "Accumulated sick leave". R.C. 124.384 (A) states, in pertinent part:

(A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, employees whose salaries or wages are paid by warrant of the director of budget and management and who have accumulated sick leave under section 124.38 or 124.382 of the Revised Code shall be paid for a percentage of their accumulated balances, upon separation for any reason, including death but excluding retirement, at their last base rate of pay at the rate of one hour of pay for every two hours of accumulated balances. An employee who retires in accordance with any retirement plan offered by the state shall be paid upon retirement for each hour of the employee's accumulated sick leave balance at a rate of fifty-five per cent of the employee's last base rate of pay. ... (emphasis added)

R.C. 124.384 (A) generally governs cash-outs for separating employees and expressly sets forth a 55 percent rate for cash-outs of retiring state employees. Because Appellant retired, it appears that he would be eligible for a 55 percent rate for his sick leave cash-out.

R.C. 124.383 ("Options with respect to sick leave credit remaining at end of year") governs sick leave balance cash-out for state employees in active service and states:

(A) The director of administrative services shall allow a full-time or part-time employee who is credited with sick leave pursuant to division (B) of section 124.382 of the Revised Code to elect one of the following options with respect to sick leave credit remaining at the end of the year:

(1) Carry forward the balance;

(2) Receive a cash benefit as established by the director [sic]. An employee serving in a temporary work level who elects to convert unused sick leave credit to cash shall do so at the base rate of pay of the employee's normal classification.

(3) Carry forward a portion of the balance and receive a cash benefit for the remainder. The cash benefit shall be calculated in the manner specified in division (A) (2) of this section.

(B) The director of administrative services shall establish procedures to allow employees to indicate the option that will be selected. Included within the procedures shall be the final date by which notification is to be made to the director concerning the option selected. Failure to comply with the date will result in the automatic carry forward of unused balances.

(C) Cash benefits shall be paid in the first pay the employee receives in December.

(D) Balances carried forward are excluded from further cash benefits provided under this section.

(E) An employee who separates during the year shall not be eligible for cash benefits provided under this section. (emphasis added)

O.A.C. 123: 1-32-08 ("Conversion or carry-forward of sick leave or personal leave credit at year's end for employees paid by warrant of the director of budget and management.") states, in pertinent part:

A) Conversion or carry-forward of sick leave credit or personal leave credit at year end. An employee whose wage or salary is paid by warrant of the director of budget and management shall have, pursuant to the following provisions, the option to convert to cash benefit payable on the first payday in December or carry forward the balance of any unused sick leave credit or personal leave credit at year's end.

(1) Sick leave credit conversion or carry-forward. An employee who accrues sick leave pursuant to section 124.382 of the Revised Code and rule 123:1-32-01 of the Administrative Code shall have at year's end the following options with regard to the portion of sick leave credit:

(a) Carry forward the balance of sick leave credit.

(b) Receive a cash benefit conversion for the unused balance of sick leave credit. An employee serving in a temporary work level or an interim appointment who elects to convert unused sick leave to cash shall do so based on the base rate of pay of his or her normal classification. Unused sick leave shall be converted at a rate based on the amount of sick leave remaining as of the last day of the pay period preceding the first paycheck the employee receives in December as described below:

(i) An employee who did not use sick leave during or subsequent to the pay period preceding the first paycheck the employee receives in December may convert up to eighty hours of unused sick leave at a rate equal to eighty per cent of the employee's base rate of pay. ...
(emphasis added)

Appellant posits that he separated following the sick use year. Moreover, he asserts, because he did not use sick leave during the pertinent pay periods, he should be eligible for the full 80 percent cash-out of his pertinent sick leave. Appellant disagrees with the Department of Administrative Services' (DAS) pronouncement that the sick leave use year here ended on the last day of the last pay period in November, namely November 29, 2014. (Please see R.C. 124.383 (E), highlighted, above)

Appellant retired in accordance with a retirement plan offered by OPERS. Appellant was paid for his accumulated sick leave balance. He received 55 percent of his last base rate of pay. Thus, I find that DPS (though DAS) has complied with the pertinent provisions set forth in R.C. 124.384.

Further, I do not find the provisions of O.A.C. 123: 1-32-08 to be in conflict with or inconsistent with the pertinent provisions in R.C. 124.384. Even if they were, R.C. 124.384 would still prevail, since an Ohio Administrative Code provision can neither enlarge, abridge, nor supercede a pertinent Revised Code provision.

It is understandable that Appellant could read these provisions separately and believe that he was entitled to an 80 percent cash-out. Nonetheless, when carefully examined, R.C. 124.384 is clear that, for a state employee separating from state service through a pertinent state retirement plan, the new retiree is to receive a sick leave balance payout of 55 percent of the retiree's last base rate of pay.

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review DISMISS the two instant appeals since Appellant has not been reduced and since Appellee performed properly in paying out Appellant's accumulated sick leave balance, pursuant to R.C. 124.03, R.C. 124.384, and O.A.C. 124-1-02 (Y).
