CDL SELF-CERTIFICATION AUTHORIZATION

Federal regulations require ALL Commercial Driver License (CDL) holders to self-certify their type of commercial driving. All CDL holders must submit a self-certification in order to be issued and maintain their CDL.

NAME OF DRIVER	OHIO DRIVER LICENSE NUMBER
----------------	----------------------------

Please mark only one of the following self-certification categories that apply to you. (See page 2 for category details.)

I certify my commercial driving is:

- Category 1: Non-Excepted Interstate: CDL holders who drive across state lines or transport freight that has or will cross state lines and must meet federal medical requirements subject to 49 CFR part 391. A medical card must be submitted to the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV).
- Category 2: Excepted Interstate: CDL holders who drive across state lines but do not need to meet federal medical requirements. Operating exclusively in transportation or operations excepted under 49 CFR 390.3(f), 391.2, 391.68 or 398.3.
- Category 3: Non-Excepted Intrastate: CDL holders who drive exclusively in Ohio and do not drive across state lines, but are required to meet state medical requirements.
- Category 4: Excepted Intrastate: CDL holders who do not use the CDL for business purposes and are not required to meet state medical requirements. Operating exclusively in transportation or operations excepted from all or part of the State driver qualification requirements. Ohio Revised Code (R.C.) 4506.03(B)(1-10).

SIGNATURE OF APPLICANT X	DATE

SELF-CERTIFICATION CATEGORIES

All Class A, B, or C CDL holders and all drivers applying for a Class A, B, or C CDL, at issuance, must certify to one of the self-certification categories listed:

Category 1: Non-Excepted Interstate: Operates or expects to operate a commercial vehicle in interstate commerce and is subject to the requirements under 49 C.F.R. part 391. Examples include:

- All Class A, B, and C drivers who drive across state lines, between two places within a state, but during part of the trip, the CMV crosses into another state, or between two places within a state, but the cargo or passengers are part of a trip that began or will end in another state
- All Class A, B, and C drivers who do NOT fall under any of the other categories
- All Class A, B, and C drivers granted a medical variance, federal hearing or seizure exemption, or Skill Performance Evaluation certificate (SPE) (V restriction)

Category 2: Excepted Interstate: Operates or expects to operate a commercial vehicle in interstate commerce (across state lines) but engages in operations exclusively excepted under 49 C.F.R. 390.3(f), 391.2, 391.68 or 398.3. Examples include:

- School bus operations transporting school children and/or school staff between home and school
- Transportation performed by the federal government, a state, or any political subdivision of a state
- Occasional transportation of personal property by individuals not for compensation or in the furtherance of a commercial enterprise
- The transportation of human corpses or sick and injured persons
- The operation of fire trucks and rescue vehicles while involved in emergency and related operations.
- A nine (9) to fifteen (15) passenger van, including the driver, weighing less than 26,001 GVWR, not for compensation
- Apiarian industries (Beekeepers)
- Either a driver of a commercial motor vehicle used primarily in the transportation of propane winter heating fuel or a driver of a motor vehicle used to respond to a pipeline emergency
- In custom harvesting on a farm or to transport farm machinery and supplies used in the custom harvesting operation to and from a farm or to transport custom harvested crops to storage or market
- Controlled and operated by a farmer, but is not a combination vehicle (power unit and towed unit), and is used to transport agricultural products, farm machinery or farm supplies (no placard-able hazardous materials) to and from a farm and within 150 air-miles of the farm
- As a private motor carrier of passengers for non-business purposes
- To transport migrant workers

Category 3: Non-Excepted Intrastate: Operates a commercial vehicle in intrastate commerce (exclusively within the State of Ohio) and subject to state driver qualification requirements. Examples include:

- Ohio drivers granted a waiver by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (PUCO)
- Commercial drivers that are restricted to interstate operations only ('K' restriction)

Category 4: Excepted Intrastate: Operates a commercial vehicle in intrastate commerce (exclusively within the State of Ohio) but operating exclusively in transportation or operations excepted from all or part of the state driver qualification requirements under R.C. 4506.03(B). Examples include:
