Section 2.

Exclusions to the Bargaining Unit are designated in Appendix A, Section 2 of this Agreement.

Section 3.

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish all matters of wages, hours, terms and conditions of employment and to provide for orderly, harmonious and cooperative employee relations between the parties.

Section 4.

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the duration of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to, or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to, or covered in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Section 1.

It is a condition of this Agreement, agreed to by both parties, to provide equal opportunity to all employees and to prohibit any discrimination because of race, creed, religion, sex, marital status, national origin, age, disability, or political affiliation.

Section 2.

Nothing in this contract shall provide, however, any additional rights, privileges, recourse or remedy other than those already provided by state and federal laws.

ARTICLE 3

NO STRIKE/NO LOCK OUT

Section 1.

The Union agrees for itself and its members that neither it nor they will directly or indirectly call for, instigate, sanction or encourage a strike or any concerted work stoppage or other job action designed to impair or impede the functions of the Lake County Sheriff's Office or any part thereof.

Section 2.

The Union agrees to actively seek stoppage of any type of job action by a member or members of the CWA, Local 4340 and shall take whatever affirmative steps reasonably within their ability that are necessary to end such job action.

Once the funds are remitted to the Union, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the Union.

Section 6.

Employees who are members of the Union during the term of this Agreement and authorize dues deductions pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall have a thirty (30) calendar day period prior to the expiration date of this Agreement in which to revoke such dues deductions by giving written notice by personal service or certified mail return receipt to the Employer and president of the local Union. ARTICLE 10

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

Section 1.

A grievance shall be defined as an allegation of a breach, miscellaneous interpretation or application of any provision of this Agreement, including disciplinary actions as set out in Article 12, Section 3, except new hire probationary employees, between the Union or a Bargaining Unit employee.

The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement and specifically waives any right of appeal through the State of Ohio Personnel Board of Review except for a probationary employee as set out in Article 7.

The establishment of this grievance procedure is not meant and does not alter normal chain of command for operational issues or directives.

When a grievance arises, the following procedure shall be observed.

A grievance shall be reduced to writing using the grievance form mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Employer containing the following information:

1. Aggrieved employee's name
2. Date of event leading to the grievance
3. A description of the incident giving rise to the grievance
4. Date grievance was submitted
5. Specified articles or sections of Agreement of alleged violation
6. Desired remedy to resolve the grievance
7. Signature of employee or Union representative in cases of class action or grievances affecting the Union.

STEP 1 A grievance shall be reduced to writing and presented to the Shift Supervisor or in their absence, the Division Commander within ten (10) working days after the employee has knowledge, or reasonably should have known of the event(s) which the grievance is based. The Supervisor or the Division Commander shall either respond in writing or schedule a meeting to discuss the issue within five (5) days of receipt of the grievance. In the event a meeting is scheduled, a response shall be submitted within five (5) working days of conclusion of such meeting.

STEP 2 If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved with the first step response or failure to respond within five (5) work days, the grievance must be advanced by filing with the Chief Deputy or his designee. The Chief Deputy or his designee shall schedule a meeting to discuss the issue within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance. A response shall be submitted within fifteen (15) working days of the conclusion of such meeting.

Beginning at Step 2, it is understood and agreed that a Director or a Steward and a representative from CWA and any other party reasonably necessary to provide the required information may attend a scheduled grievance meeting. In a class action grievance affecting more than one employee, an affected employee shall be named to participate in behalf of others affected. The Employer reserves the right to designate or provide a representative to attend such scheduled grievance meetings.

STEP 3 - If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved with the second step response or failure to respond within five (5) work days, the grievance must be advanced by filing with the Sheriff or his designee. The Sheriff or his designee shall either respond in writing or schedule a meeting to discuss the issue within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance. In the event a meeting is scheduled, a response shall be submitted within fifteen (15) working days of the conclusion of such meeting.

STEP 4 Arbitration If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step 3, the Union may, within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the Step 3 answer, submit the matter to arbitration. Upon written notice of the Union's intent to arbitrate a grievance the parties shall, within seven (7) calendar days, jointly request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services (FMCS) submit a panel of seven (7) arbitrators, selected from a Sub-Regional pool, and the arbitrator shall then be chosen by alternately striking names until the last named arbitrator remains, who will be designated as the arbitrator to hear the case. The fee and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne by the losing party. Prior to striking, either party shall have the option to reject the list of names provided by the FMCS and request another list. Each party may strike up to one (1) list.

Section 2.

In the event a grievance is submitted to arbitration, the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction, power and authority only over disputes arising out of grievances as to the interpretation and/or application of and/or compliance with provisions of this contract including disciplinary actions as set out in Article 12, and in reaching his decision the arbitrator shall have no authority to add to or subtract from or modify in any way any of the provisions of this contract. The arbitrator shall issue a decision within thirty (30) calendar days after submission of the case to him.

Section 3.

All decisions of arbitrators consistent with Article 11, Section 1, and all pre-arbitration grievance settlements reached by the Union and the Employer shall be final, conclusive, and binding on the Employer, the Union, and the employees.

Section 4.

A policy grievance which affects a substantial number of employees may be initially presented by the Union at Step 2 of the grievance procedure as a class action grievance. The parties agree to designate an affected employee who will participate in behalf of the group.

Section 5.

The time limits set forth in the Grievance Procedure shall, unless extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union, be binding and any grievance not timely presented, or timely processed thereafter by the Union shall be considered withdrawn or settled based on last step response and shall not be arbitrable. The Union reserves the right to withdraw a grievance at any time.

ARTICLE 11

REVIEW OF PERSONNEL FILES

Section 1.

Every member shall be allowed to review his personnel file at a reasonable time during regular office hours upon the written request to the Sheriff, and in the presence of the Sheriff or his designated representative. Except for Supervisory and Administrative personnel with a legitimate need to know, and except for the Office of the Director of Administrative Services, the State Employment Relations Board, and courts of competent jurisdiction that have subpoenaed them, or as required under the public records act.

ARTICLE 12

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE/Appeal Process

Section 1.

Disciplinary actions may be imposed upon an employee for just cause and may include any of the following:

1. Cautionary Warning

2. Written Reprimand
3. Suspension
4. Discharge

Other actions such as reassignment, counseling, rehabilitation program, or other conditional requirements may be imposed based on the nature of the event.

Normally, the Employer shall follow the tenants of progressive discipline except for infractions considered serious by the Employer. Progressive disciplinary actions shall not be categorized based on the nature of separate events.

Employees shall receive a copy of disciplinary actions and sign recognizing receipt.

Section 2.

In such events where the Employer intends to discipline an employee in a manner that results in a loss of pay or benefits, a pre-disciplinary hearing shall be offered. The Employer shall give notice of the hearing which includes the nature of the charges and level of discipline intended.

The affected employee shall have the right of representation at any such pre-disciplinary hearing.

At such hearing, the Employer shall present the reasons for the intended action and offer an opportunity for the employee to respond.

Section 3.

A letter of rebuttal for any cautionary reprimand may be placed in the employee's personnel file, and is not subject to the grievance procedure, except that those incidents may be reviewed, if led to a suspension or greater action.

Employees who have received a written reprimand may appeal such disciplinary action through the grievance procedure set out in this Agreement. Such grievances shall be submitted directly to Step 2, whose response shall be final with no further appeals.

Only employees who have been disciplined in a manner that results in a loss of pay or benefits may appeal such disciplinary action through the grievance and arbitration procedure set out in this Agreement. Such grievances shall be submitted directly to Step 3.

By agreement to process disciplinary appeals through the grievance procedure, Bargaining Unit employees waive any right of appeals through the State Personnel Board of Review, except for a new hire employee as set out in Probationary Period, Article 6.

Section 4.

Records of any cautionary or written reprimands will cease to have force and effect or to be considered in future disciplinary measures one (1) year after the effective date of the reprimand, providing there are no intervening reprimands during the period.

Records of any suspension of three (3) days or less will cease to have force and effect or be considered in future disciplinary measures five (5) years after the effective date of the suspension, providing there are no intervening suspensions during the period.

Records of any suspension greater than three (3) days will cease to have force and effect or to be considered in future disciplinary measures seven (7) years after the effective date of the suspension, providing there are not intervening suspensions during the period.

ARTICLE 13

INTERNAL INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

Section 1.

A Bargaining Unit member who is to be questioned as a suspect in any investigation which may result in his/her being charged under the criminal statutes of this or any other state or of the United States, shall be advised of his/her constitutional rights according to law. The members shall have the right to legal counsel and upon such a request, all questioning shall cease.

Section 2.

It shall be the duty of any officer who is the subject of any internal affairs investigation to cooperate fully with the Internal Affairs Unit.

Any officer who is contacted regarding any internal affairs investigation, whether or not he/she is the subject of the investigation, shall cooperate fully with the Internal Affairs Unit.

All officers requested to give any statement shall, when requested by an Internal Affairs Investigator, give a statement of facts concerning the incident being investigated. The request for the statement should be timed so that a complete rational answer can be given. This statement shall be either in inner-office form or a formal statement, at the discretion of the Internal Affairs Investigator.

Section 3.

The County cannot in the course of an investigation obtain evidence through the use of administrative pressure, threats, coercion, or promise. The County may require an employee to give a blood sample, urine sample, or breath sample to be used in an internal investigation process. The County may ask that the employee voluntarily submit to a polygraph examination to be used in the course of an internal investigation.

Some of these situations may lead to disciplinary action at which time the employee will be offered the normal time sequence and the availability of witnesses of his own choosing.

Section 4.

If the investigation reveals criminal activity and the officer has not waived his/her constitutional rights, the officer may be represented by counsel, either in the form of an attorney, a CWA, Local 4340 representative, or a witness of his/her own choice.

All investigations of an internal nature shall be instituted at the discretion and under the specific orders of the Sheriff with the investigation under the direct supervision of the Administrative Aide or other designated Hearing Officer.

Section 5.

When a single anonymous complaint is made against a member of the Bargaining Unit and there is no corroborative evidence of any kind, the Bargaining Unit member accused shall not be required to submit to interrogation or make a report. If the complaint is found to be invalid or progress is not possible due to the lack of evidence, then the complaint shall be deemed unfounded and all records or entries placed in an investigation file.

Section 6.

The parties herein agree that there shall be no press release by the Union regarding the employee under investigation, the nature of the investigation, or the progress of the investigation, until the investigation is completed and the employee is either cleared or charged unless required by law.

Section 7.

Any criminal penalties administered shall not be subject to the grievance procedure. All other discipline imposed in accordance with this Agreement shall be administered through the disciplinary process and shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 14

SICK LEAVE

Section 1.

All employees in full-time County service are entitled to earned sick leave with pay.

Full-time employees accumulate sick leave at the rate of 4.6 hours for each completed and paid eighty (80) hours of service. Effective upon implementation of this Agreement, employees shall accumulate sick leave at a rate of 3.077 hours for each completed and paid eighty (80) hours of service (ten [10] days per year). Credit is given for all time in active pay status, including vacation and regular sick leave, but not for time on leave of absence without pay or while receiving paid injury leave.

Sick leave is charged in minimum unit of one-half (1/2) hour for the first one-half hour, and then charged as used. The employee shall be charged for sick leave only for days upon which they would otherwise have been scheduled to work.

Sick leave may be granted for absences due to the following reasons:

- A. Illness, injury, or pregnancy-related conditions of the employee.
- B. Exposure of an employee to a contagious disease which could be communicated to and jeopardize the health of other employees.
- C. Examination of the employee, including medical, psychological, dental or optical examination by an appropriate practitioner.
- D. Death of a member of the employee's immediate family (refer to Bereavement Section).
- E. Illness, injury or pregnancy-related condition of a member of the employee's immediate family* where the employee's presence is reasonably necessary for the health and welfare of the employee's family member.

- F. Examination, including medical, psychological, dental, or optical examination of a member of the employee's immediate family* by an appropriate practitioner where the employee's presence is reasonably necessary.

DEFINITION OF IMMEDIATE FAMILY:

Section 2. – PROCEDURE

An employee who is ill and unable to report to work shall so notify their immediate supervisor within two (2) hours of their scheduled starting time. A shift worker must report the reason for their absence two (2) hours prior to their scheduled starting time, except for unusual circumstances beyond their control.

Where sick leave is requested to care for members of the immediate family, the Supervisor may require a physician's certificate to the effect that the presence of the employee is necessary to care for the ill member.

If illness or disability continues past the time covered by earned sick leave, the employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay.

Section 3. - ABUSE OF SICK LEAVE

When the Employer has a reasonable belief that the employee is feigning illness or injury, they shall have the right to investigate during reasonable hours by visiting the employee's home. If the employee is not at home, he/she must be at a doctor's office or pharmacy or other excused location.

When the Employer can substantiate the abuse of sick time, either on an individual case or by virtue of a demonstration pattern, they shall have the right to challenge the use of this sick time under Abuse of Sick Time. Employees failing to comply with the sick leave rules and regulations shall not be paid. Applications for sick leave with intent to defraud shall be grounds for disciplinary action which may include dismissal.

After four (4) continuous working days of illness, a physician's statement will be required.

After four (4) undocumented occurrences, a physician's certificate may be required. An occurrence shall be defined as the period of time an employee is off from the start to the return, except that no more than one (1) occurrence will be recorded in any single shift.

Section 4. - TRANSFER OF SICK LEAVE CREDITS

An employee who transfers from one public agency to another in the State of Ohio, or who is reappointed or reinstated, or who transfers from one state department to another, shall be credited with the unused balance of their accumulated sick leave, provided:

Section 6. - UNUSED SICK LEAVE PAYMENT

Employees are entitled under law to choose to receive payment for accrued unused sick leave pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 124.39 (A), (B) if eligible, or may choose to apply for payment pursuant to the Lake County Policy established herein.

Employees are eligible to receive payment under this policy for accrued unused sick leave upon separation from employment due to death, retirement or resignation provided the employee has the recommendation of their appointing authority that they were in good standing at the time of their separation from employment.

The years of employment for determining the percentage of accrued unused sick leave to be paid under this policy are defined as years of fulltime employment with a Lake County Appointing Authority that is under the legislative control of the Board of Lake County Commissioners and/or a Lake County Appointing Authority that receives at least half of its funding from the Lake County general revenue fund.

Employees hired prior to January 1, 1997 may include prior service with another Ohio political subdivision in the years of employment for determining whether accrued unused sick leave may be paid.

Effective upon execution of this Agreement, employees with less than 10 years of employment who separate from employment due to death, retirement or resignation shall not be entitled to any payout for accrued unused sick leave accumulated during the course of their employment.

These days shall be recorded as bereavement day/excused absences and deducted from employee's sick leave.

ARTICLE 20

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 1.

The Employer shall grant an eligible employee up to twelve (12) weeks leave during a twelve (12) month period in accordance with provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act. Accrued paid vacation, compensatory, personal or sick leave (if medically required) time shall be utilized first and shall count towards the leave.

Paid Injury Leave utilized in an uncontested Workers' Compensation injury leave shall not count towards the twelve (12) week period. Employees in such instances shall be permitted to continue health insurance coverage by pre-paying the employee monthly premium co-pay for a period of three (3) months after all paid Injury Leave is exhausted.

Section 2. - LENGTH OF LEAVE - MATERNITY

A pregnant employee will be granted a leave of absence without pay, subject to the provisions of this rule.

Leaves of absence shall be limited to the period of time that the pregnant employee is unable to perform the substantial and material duties of the employee's position. This period may include reasonable pre-delivery, delivery, and recovery time, as certified by a physician, not to exceed six (6) months including such time provided under the Family and Medical Leave Act. Failure by an employee to return to work as directed or at the conclusion of a pregnancy leave will be considered as having voluntarily resigned effective with the date they were to report to work.

Section 3. - PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATE

A pregnant employee requesting a leave of absence without pay must present, at the time the request is made, a physician's certificate stating the probable period for which the employee will be unable to perform the substantial and material duties of the employee's position due to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

Section 4.

In an attempt to protect the Agency, the employee and the unborn child, the Employer may require a pregnant employee to begin an unpaid maternity leave after the sixth (6th) month of their pregnancy. Such determination shall be made based on the employee's condition and duties in relation to position. In cases where an employee is required to begin an unpaid maternity leave, the Employer shall pay the cost of their hospitalization coverage until birth or loss of the child or sixty (60) days, whichever is less.

Section 5. - SICK LEAVE USAGE

A pregnant employee shall be permitted to use any or all of the employee's accumulated sick leave credit only for the period of time, as certified by the physician's certificate, that the employee is unable to work as a result of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. An employee using sick leave credit shall not be prevented from receiving a leave of absence without pay for the remainder of the period as certified by a physician.

Section 6. - FITNESS FOR DUTY

An employee found unfit for duty or unable to return to service after an extended medical leave as authorized by the Employer shall be removed from employment in a non-disciplinary manner.

Initiation of the process of removal may begin when the Employer reasonably believes that an ongoing condition renders an employee unfit for duty.

Such initial determination may be based on the employee's physician's medical statement or, at the Employer's expense, an employee may be required to submit to a medical examination to determine fitness for duty.

If an employee disputes the findings of the Employer's examination they may, at their expense, submit to a medical examination by a physician of their choosing.

If the results of this examination are in contrast to the Employer's physician, a third physician or medical facility mutually recommended by each party's physician shall determine the employee's fitness for duty. The cost of this examination shall be shared equally by the Employer and the employee.

In cases where the condition allows use of sick leave, removal shall not occur prior to exhaustion of accrued sick leave or until accrued vacation, holiday, or compensatory time is exhausted.

ARTICLE 21

INJURY LEAVE

Section 1.

Effective January 1, 2006, in the event of an uncontested duty related injury resulting in loss of work by an employee, the Employer shall pay injury leave pay for the time lost at work for a period not to exceed sixty (60) work days (eight (8) hour equivalent) in one (1) calendar year. Compensation shall begin after seven (7) calendar days on the sixth (6th) consecutive shift of absence as certified by a physician.

Section 2.

A total of sixty (60) days of granted pay shall be on a one (1) time basis, per one (1) calendar year period. An employee initially using a portion of said leave, shall be entitled to use the remaining period of time available within the calendar year. In such cases, additional absences as certified by a physician, require the employee to be off for a period of five (5) consecutive work days, where they returned to work prior to exhausting such injury leave within the calendar year period.

Section 3.

No injury leave pay shall be paid at any time an employee is compensated by any other means by the Employer, including but not limited to, holidays, vacation, personal days, sick leave, bereavement, compensatory time, or compensation paid through Workers' Compensation or other time off program funded by the Employer.

Any paid time off, either pre-scheduled or naturally falling within the period an employee is off and being compensated injury leave pay, shall be charged to the appropriate designated account, such as vacation, holiday, sick leave, bereavement, etc.

There shall be no break in seniority during the period an employee is receiving injury leave pay. No sick time will be accrued for days compensated as injury leave pay.

Section 4.

The employee shall authorize the full release to the Employer of medical records and documents related to the incident or medical condition giving rise to the payment of injury leave pay.

The employee may be required to submit to an examination by a physician designated by the Employer to determine work related eligibility issues or continued disability. If a claim is disallowed for any reason, the employee shall be required to reimburse the Employer for any compensation received. In the event a claim is contested by the Employer, and subsequently allowed, injury leave shall be paid or re-credited to sick, vacation, or other accounts where such deductions were originally made.

Section 5.

An employee receiving injury leave pay or compensation through Workers' Compensation, or similar program funded by the Employer, shall be required to work on a light duty or transitional assignment as determined by the Employer. Such assignment will be based on any limitations placed on an employee by the attending physician. Such assignments may be made anywhere within the Sheriff's organization.

Light duty or transitional assignments are temporary in nature. Both prognosis for, and actual time on such assignments will be for periods exceeding five (5) consecutive shifts or greater, not to exceed a total of twelve (12) weeks.

Employees placed on light duty or transitional assignments for less than twelve (12) weeks in a calendar year, may be required to return to such assignments for the number of weeks remaining in the calendar year.

Time worked on a light duty or transitional assignment shall not count toward the number of paid injury leave days an employee is entitled to.

An employee returned to work prior to exhausting injury leave on a light duty or transitional work assignment shall not be required to be off five (5) consecutive work days in order to use the remaining period of time available for the same injury should the light duty assignment end for any reason.

Section 6.

Light duty or transitional assignments shall not be restricted by or based on Bargaining Unit designations.

Section 7.

Employees may not work outside employment or jobs, without specific written authorization by the Employer, while receiving injury leave pay, Workers' Compensation, or compensation program funded by the Employer.

Section 8.

If an employee receiving injury leave pay is not at home, he/she must be at a doctor's office or pharmacy, or other excused location during the period of the employee's duty shift.

Upon re-enlistment or commencement of voluntary extended duty, the employee is not eligible for reinstatement.
