5. Upon request, all derogatory materials shall be removed from the employee's personnel file after remaining in the file for a period of five (5) years except that derogatory materials more than five (5) years old shall remain in the file if there has been a recurrence of the type of behavior to which the derogatory material relates within the preceding five (5) years. The names of all other employees shall be placed on a separate reinstatement list in reverse order of layoff. Reinstatement shall be made from this list before any new employees are hired in that classification or any employee is reinstated from the probationary list.

- G. Vacancies which occur in the classification of layoff shall be offered to or declined in writing by the employee standing highest on the layoff list before the next person on the list may be considered. Any employee who declines reinstatement shall be removed from the reinstatement name list.
- H. The employee's name shall remain on the appropriate list for a period of two (2) years from the effective date of layoff. If reinstated from layoff during this period, such employee shall retain all previous accumulated seniority and a notice of reinstatement shall be made by certified mail.

Disciplinary action is deemed to be any action which deprives any employee in the bargaining unit of any classification or incident of employment or classification in which the employee has permanence and includes but is not limited to dismissal, demotion or suspension.
- C. Generally, an employee subject to disciplinary action shall be given a verbal reprimand in written form as a first step. The disciplinary procedure shall proceed under normal circumstances as follows:
 - 1. Verbal Reprimand in Written Form
 - 2. Written Reprimand
 - 3. 1 – 3 Day Suspension

Each employee shall receive notice in writing, forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the purpose of any such hearing or fact-finding hearing from which disciplinary action may arise.
