17.1 With the exception to accretions of classifications to the bargaining unit, an employee(s) of the City who is employed outside the appropriate bargaining unit, who becomes employed in bargaining unit covered classifications, shall be considered as a new employee for purposes of seniority under provisions of this Agreement.

17.2 Such employee shall retain total City seniority only for purposes of retirement accrual, sick leave accrual, vacation accrual and longevity payments.

ARTICLE 18

SENIORITY

18.1 Seniority shall be defined as an employee's uninterrupted length of continuous employment with the Employer. A probationary employee shall have no seniority until he satisfactorily completes the probationary period which will be added to his total length of continuous employment.

18.2 An employee's seniority shall be terminated when one or more of the following occur:

- a) He resigns;
- b) He is discharged for just cause;
- c) He is laid-off for a period of time exceeding two (2) years;
- d) He retires;
- e) He fails to report for work for more than two (2) working days without having given the Employer advance notice of his pending absence, unless he is physically unable to do so as certified by the appropriate authority.
- f) He becomes unable to perform his job duties due to illness or injury and is unable to return to work upon the expiration of any leave applicable to him;
- g) He refuses to recall or fails to report to work within five (5) working days from the date the Employer sends the employee a recall notice.

18.3 If two or more employees are hired or appointed on the same date, their relative seniority shall be determined by the drawing of lots.

18.4 The Employer shall provide a current seniority list by classification to the Union on a semi-annual basis.

ARTICLE 19

LAY-OFF AND RECALL

19.1 Where the Employer determines it necessary to reduce the size of its workforce, the Employer shall give written notice to the Union President or his designee no less than seven (7) days in advance of any such lay-off, indicating how many employees will be affected and what departments(s) are being reduced. Such reductions shall be made in accordance with the provisions hereinafter set forth.

19.2 Employees within affected job titles shall be laid off according to their relative departmental seniority with the least senior employee being laid off first, providing that all probationary and temporary employees within the affected job title(s) in the department are laid off first.

19.3 Employees who are laid off from one job title may only displace (bump) another employee with lesser seniority in a lower rated job title within the same department, except where such employee has had prior satisfactory employment in another department, he may bump into that department subject to the provisions of Section .07, below.

19.4 Employees who are bumped by a more senior employee shall be able to bump another employee with lesser seniority in a lower rated job title pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 19.03, above.

19.5 At the end of the bumping process, the employee who is bumped and unable to bump another employee pursuant to the above provisions, shall be laid off.

19.6 Employee(s) who are laid off, shall have the option of bumping another employee pursuant to the above provisions, or being directly laid off by the Employer. A more senior employee may voluntarily accept layoff.

19.7 In all cases where one employee is exercising his seniority to bump another employee, his right to bump into another department is subject to the conditions that he is qualified for the position and able to perform the functions and duties of the position into which he is attempting to bump.

19.8 Recalls shall be in the inverse order of lay-off and a laid off employee shall retain his right to recall for two (2) years from the date of his lay-off.

19.9 Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee's address listed on the Employer's records and shall be sent by certified mail. An employee who refuses recall or does not report for work within five (5) working days from the date the Employer mails the recall notice, shall be considered to have resigned his position and forfeits all rights to employment with the Employer.

19.10 Employee(s) scheduled for lay-off shall be given a minimum of seven (7) days advance notice of lay-off.

19.11 Each notice of lay-off shall contain the following information:

- 1) The reason for lay-off or displacement;
- 2) The date of lay-off or displacement becomes effective;
- 3) The employee's seniority date in the classification;
- 4) A statement advising the employee of the right to recall and Employment.

19.12 In the event an employee refused recall to the Division from which he was laid off, such employee shall lose recall rights for the original classification. If said refusal is for a recall to the employee's original classification, such employee shall be removed from the recall list.

19.13 In the event of extenuating circumstances such as illness, injury, or other good cause preventing the employee from returning within the time limit above, the City may grant a reasonable extension, not to exceed the thirty (30) days. In the event such illness or injury precludes an employee from returning to work within the time limit above (including extension), such employee shall be by-passed for recall, but shall remain on the recall list, for the remainder of the term of the recall period. The denial of an extension shall not be made in an arbitrary manner.

19.14 A laid off employee will be recalled to the first available job position that they may be qualified to perform in accordance with their seniority. For the purpose of recall, it shall be the employee's responsibility to have a current address on file with the City.

19.15 Recall lists shall be kept current by the City and posted on the bulletin boards agreed to by the Union. The Union president shall be furnished and/or forwarded a copy of all recall lists as they are made current by the City.

ARTICLE 20 VACANCIES AND JOB POSTINGS

20.1 When a job vacancy or vacancies occur within the bargaining unit and the Employer intends to fill the vacancy, the Employer will post an announcement of such vacancy or vacancies. Said postings shall remain posted for a period of five (5) working days. The announcement shall contain the job title of the vacancy, a brief job description and the rate of pay, and the date of the posting and bid deadline date.

20.2 Any bargaining unit employee who wishes to apply for the posted vacancy must submit his application in writing to the Director of Human Resources' office by the end of the posting period in order to be considered for the position. The written application form is attached hereto as Exhibit "B". Full time bargaining unit employees shall be given first preference of the posted job they may have bid on. In accordance with this article, any bargaining unit employee who bids and is awarded a position to a lower rated or lower paying position cannot be placed higher than the top step of the lower-rated/lower paying position.

20.3 If more than one qualified employee applies for a vacancy, the vacancy shall be awarded to the employee who has the highest degree of qualifications, skill, experience and ability to perform the work in question, as determined at the sole discretion of the Employer. If more than one (1) qualified employee, as reasonable determined by the Employer, applies for a vacancy, the vacancy shall be awarded to the employee who has the highest degree of qualifications, skill, experience and ability to perform the work in question as reasonable determined by the Employer. If the qualifications, skill, experience and ability of the two (2) or more qualified applicants are substantially equal as reasonable determined by the Employer, seniority shall govern. If a grievance is filed, the burden would be on the Union to prove the employee who didn't get the job was more qualified.

20.4 The effective date of the position change shall be as soon as possible but no later than ninety (90) days after the selection has been made, and once the selection has been made, the Employer will notify all applicants.

20.5 Nothing in this Article shall be construed to limit or prevent the Employer from temporarily filling a vacant position from the bargaining unit for ninety (90) day period of time, pending the Employer's determination to fill the vacancy on a permanent basis. The Employer shall also retain the right to extend such temporary transfer up to ninety (90) days on a one-time basis.

20.6 An employee who is awarded a new job title shall be required to satisfactorily complete a sixty (60) actual work day probationary period. He will be considered to have qualified on the new job when he satisfactorily performs the required duties with no more supervision than is required of other employees on the same or similar jobs and when his record as to quality and quantity of work meets the standards applicable to the job. If, during the probationary period or at the end of the probationary period, it is determined, at the Employer's sole discretion, that the employee cannot satisfactorily perform the new job, he will be returned to his previously held position at this prior rate of pay. The Employer's determination to return an employee to his former position shall not be grievable through the grievance procedure and shall not be appealable to any Civil Service Commission. Employees shall have thirty (30) calendar days to voluntarily revert to their former position. In the event of any reversion of an employee, the Employer need not repost the position if it established a list of eligible employees from the original posting.

20.7 If no applications are received or if the Employer determines that none of the applicants are qualified for the job, the Employer may fill the job by hiring a qualified new employee from outside the bargaining unit.

20.8 No employee shall be eligible to fill a vacancy or for promotion under these provisions who has not satisfactorily completed the required probationary period for his existing position.

ARTICLE 21 TEMPORARY TRANSFERS

21.1 The Employer expressly reserves the right to temporarily transfer employees to perform work in a different job classification, in accordance with Sections 21.02 and 21.03, below, wherein such transfers are intended to be of limited duration not to exceed ninety (90) days with the Employer having the right to extend such temporary transfer up to ninety (90) days on a one-time basis.

21.2 An employee who is temporarily assigned to a job classification with a rate of pay lower than the rate of pay he is regularly paid, shall receive his regular rate of pay for all time worked in such position.

21.3 An employee who is temporarily assigned to work in a job classification having a

21.4 Normally, the most senior, qualified employee shall be first selected for temporary transfer.

22.1 The normal workweek for all full-time, permanent employees shall be forty (40) hours worked in five (5) eight (8) hour days, with two (2) consecutive days off. The Employer reserves the right, at its own discretion, to implement a four day (4 ten (10) hour days) workweek where practical. Days off, under the four (4) day workweek, are at the discretion of management. The Sanitation Division shall not be eligible for a four (4) day workweek.

22.3 Shift Time. The normal shift time and shift schedule in effect, excluding emergencies, shall not be changed unless a five (5) calendar day advance notice is given to the Union and the affected employee(s). Each employee shall be scheduled to work a regular shift and each work shift shall have a regular starting and quitting time, unless provided elsewhere in this Article, or otherwise agreed to by the Union.

22.5 Break Times. All full-time employees shall be granted one (1) fifteen (15) minute break period each one-half (1/2) shift, to be taken at the work site. The break period shall be scheduled by the Employer as close as possible to the middle of each one-half (1/2) shift.

22.7 This Article may be suspended at the Employer's discretion in the event a state of emergency is declared.

ARTICLE 23 CALL BACK PAY

23.01 When an employee is called into work at a time which does not abut or overlap his regular shift, he shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay, or work, at the appropriate rate.

ARTICLE 24 REPORT IN PAY

24.01 An employee who reports to work on a scheduled work day shall be provided a minimum of two (2) hours pay or actual hours worked, whichever is greater.

ARTICLE 25 OVERTIME COMPENSATION AND EQUALIZATION

25.1 If approved by the Department Head or immediate supervisor, all full-time employees shall receive, in addition to their base pay, overtime compensation for hours actually worked in excess of regularly scheduled hours in each workweek. Compensation for overtime hours, in addition to base pay, shall be at the rate of fifty percent (50%) of base pay. Holidays and vacations, funeral leave and comp time shall be construed as hours actually worked.

25.2 Full-time employees may receive, in lieu of said overtime, time off with pay at the rate of specified above; provided, however, that any such time off with pay be scheduled subject to the approval of the Division and Department Heads to which such employee is assigned and further subject to the following conditions:

1. Such compensatory time shall be given in lieu of pay, and any such overtime on any day shall be compensated for either as pay or as compensatory time but not as a combination thereof; provided however, overtime to be calculated as compensatory time on any day shall be for a minimum of one hour.
2. Employees who work overtime may, as an alternative to payment for such time, elect to accumulate the time not to exceed eighty (80) hours, to be taken at a later date as compensatory time. Any overtime worked when an employee has reached the maximum accrual rate shall be paid.
3. Requests for compensatory time must be submitted in writing 48 hours in advance of the anticipated and requested time off. Such requests shall be given reasonable consideration. All compensatory time off requests shall be subject to the operational needs of the facility/department. In the event a request is denied based on operational needs the employee may have the requested (but denied) time off converted to cash payment at the employees regular rate of pay, have the compensatory time bank reduced or retain such time in the compensatory time bank.

25.3 For purposes of this Article, "regular shift" shall mean the eight (8) hour work day to which the employee is regularly scheduled to work, "full shift" shall mean eight (8) consecutive hours of duty, and "continuous time" shall begin when the employee starts to work and shall not be deemed interrupted by a lunch period or a mandatory rest period.

25.4 Employees who continue on duty beyond the regular shift or who have been scheduled and accepted duties at times other than their regular shift shall be compensated at the rate set forth in Section 25.01 for all time during which the employee is performing the assigned duties.

25.5 Opportunity to work overtime is the sole discretion of the Employer shall be distributed as equally as practical among employees in the same position classifications with a division, starting with the standby personnel and then the employee with the least number of hours in the position classification, provided the employee is qualified to perform the specific work required. A list of overtime hours worked and/or declined shall be kept beginning with the Monday immediately following the execution of this Agreement and such a list shall be reset once again on January 1 of each year beginning with standby personnel and then employees with the least number of hours in the position classification.

The standby personnel for Streets, Water Distribution, Water Treatment Plant (Maintenance personnel only), Waste Water Plant (Maintenance personnel only), Finance Department (Meter Readers only) and Sewer shall consist of not less than one (1) person on a weekly rotating basis. The Employer reserves the right to assign other personnel from other department to standby status for reasons of efficiency of service.

Overtime for employees assigned to standby shall be mandatory. In the event an employee assigned to standby fails to report for a call out or is unable to be contacted, said employee will be charged with two (2) times the number of call out hours available, on the call out list.

25.6 An up-to-date record showing overtime hours worked and/or declined shall be posted on the first workday of each week in a prominent place accessible to each employee. The employee with the least number of overtime hours in that position classification within a division in conformance with Sections .04 and .05 shall be called first; provided however, if two (2) employees have an equal number of overtime hours recorded, the employee with the most seniority in that position classification shall be called first.

25.7 Any personnel initially hired within a calendar year shall be listed on the overtime call out list with the number of hours equal to the highest number of hours for any employee in that position classification within the division.

25.8 Where overtime is required on specific work projects, the employee or employees involved on such specific work projects that day will be considered first for the overtime assignment; and further, where special skills are required, employees possessing such skills will be assigned to the overtime work involved.

25.9 When it is necessary to go outside of a division to obtain the number of employees needed for overtime, the supervisor shall go to the overtime call out lists for the other divisions and shall first call the employee on standby, if any, who has the fewest overtime hours and then the employee on standby, if any, with the next fewest hours, provided such employees are of the position classification needed to perform the specific work required. If additional employees are still required, the division supervisory personnel requesting the call out shall call the employees within the position classification needed on the basis of the fewest hours of overtime regardless of the division to which the employee is normally assigned.

25.10 When there is a continuation of overtime, the employee or employees working on the assignment who accepted overtime before the start of the normal shift will be considered first to stay for any subsequent overtime to complete the assignment.

25.11 In the event that an insufficient number of employees accept overtime, beginning with the least senior employee and continuing thereafter by inverse seniority in the position classification, that employee shall be assigned the available overtime.

25.12 Due to the emergency nature of call outs, an employee who accepts a call out must report to the assigned work place of the division within thirty (30) minutes of being called to be eligible to receive any overtime compensation. Failure to report within this time limit will result in the next eligible employee on the overtime list being called out and the tardy employee being charged as having declined the overtime, sent home, and may be subject to disciplinary action.

25.13 Where overtime is the continuation of the employee's regular shift, such employee shall be permitted a fifteen (15) minute break after the completion of two (2) hours beyond the regular shift. In addition, all employees when working overtime shall be permitted an additional one-half (1/2) hour break after the completion of each four (4) hours of work without a break.

25.14 Overtime distribution for clerical employees shall follow the above procedure except that references to standby shall not apply.

25.15 No employee shall be eligible to work more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours. Consecutive hours shall not be deemed interrupted by a lunch period or break. Upon completion of sixteen (16) consecutive hours of work, an employee shall become ineligible for any additional hours until the completion of a mandatory eight (8) hour rest period.

Upon completion of the mandatory eight (8) hour rest period, the employee shall report back to his regularly scheduled shift, or may elect to return for additional overtime duty as appropriate. If, pursuant to this article, an employee is not eligible to start or complete his regularly scheduled shift, such employee will be paid straight time for those hours of the regularly scheduled shift for which the employee is ineligible.

25.16 The Employer shall not be required to call employees on sick leave, funeral leave, vacation or injury leave until after that employee reports for the next regularly scheduled shift. Employees on all other approved leaves, while in pay status, shall be eligible for overtime.

In the event the Employer inadvertently contacts an employee of another Division who was on sick, funeral, vacation or injury, and such employee accepts the overtime, the Employer shall not be charged with having violated this Section.

25.17 All overtime actually worked on the sixth consecutive day shall actually be at the rate of time and one-half and all overtime actually worked in on the seventh consecutive day shall be at the rate of double time, provided the employee has worked two (2) or more hours through the 6th day and more than two (2) hours the 7th day except when employee has been previously scheduled to do testing, sampling or similar activities. Overtime worked more than two hours on the sixth consecutive day may be taken in pay or converted to compensatory time. Overtime worked on the seventh consecutive day shall be paid. Consecutive days worked are not interrupted by a change in the pay period.

25.18 Employees assigned to a call out crew shall be paid a weekly stipend of $125.00 (one hundred twenty five dollars).

28.6 Sick leave for more than ten (10) separate occurrences in any calendar year may be considered cause for review. A separate occurrence is the period of time between the time the employee initially reports an illness and misses time until the employee returns to work. Except at Step 1, all grievances shall include the name and position of the aggrieved party; the identity of the provisions of this agreement involved in the grievance; the time and place where the alleged events or conditions constituting the grievance took place; the identity of the party responsible for causing the said grievance, if known to the aggrieved party; and a general statement of the nature of the grievance and the redress sought by the aggrieved party.
- B. Except at Step 1, all decisions shall be rendered in writing at each step of the grievance procedure. Each decision shall be transmitted to the aggrieved party and the Union.
- C. If a grievance affects a group of employees working in different locations, with different principals, or associated with an employer-wide controversy, it may be submitted at Step 3.
- D. The preparation of grievances shall be conducted during non-working hours.
- E. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the administration and having said matter informally adjusted without the intervention of the Union, provided that the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

In the event that any grievance is adjusted without formal determination, pursuant to this procedure, while such adjustment shall be binding upon the aggrieved party and shall, in all respects, be final, said adjustment shall not create a precedent or ruling binding upon the Employer in future proceedings.

- F. The Union shall have the right to be present at any step of this

- G. This shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for disputes concerning any type of discipline or discharge actions.
- H. The time limits provided herein will be strictly adhered to and any grievance not filed initially or appealed with the specified time limits will be deemed waived and void. If the Employer fails to reply within the specified time limit, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step. The time limits specified for either party may be extended only by written mutual agreement.
- I. This procedure shall not be used for the purpose of adding to, subtracting from, or altering in any way, any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Step 1: An employee who believes he may have a grievance shall notify his immediate supervisor of the possible grievance within five (5) days of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to the grievance. The Department Head will hold an informal meeting with the employee, and his steward if the employee so requests, within five (5) days of the date of the notice by the employee. The Department Head and the employee, along with the employee's steward if the employee so requests, will discuss the issues in dispute with the objective of resolving the matter informally.

Step 3: If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the written decision at the conclusion of Step 2, a written appeal of the decision may be filed with the Mayor within five (5) days from the date of the rendering of the decision in Step 2. Copies of the written decisions shall be submitted with the appeal. The Mayor or his designee shall convene a meeting within ten (10) days of the receipt of the appeal. The meeting will be held with the aggrieved party, the Union, and any other party necessary to provide the required information for the rendering of a proper decision. The Mayor or his designee shall issue a written decision to the Union, with a copy to the employee within fifteen (15) days from the date of the meeting. If the Union is not satisfied with the decision at Step 3, the Union may proceed to arbitration pursuant to the Arbitration Procedure herein contained.

50.1 Grievance mediation shall be established as an option, which is available to the parties after the final step of the internal grievance procedure.

50.2 All grievances, which have been appealed to arbitration, will be referred to mediation unless the parties mutually agree not to mediate a particular grievance. Arbitration scheduling will give priority to cases, which have been to mediation first.

50.3 The parties mutually agree to utilize State Employment Relations Board (SERB) mediators to serve as mediators for the purpose of grievance mediation unless otherwise mutually agreed.

50.4 The grievant or steward as designated by the Union shall have the right to be present at the mediation conference and each party may have no more than two (2) representatives as a participant in the mediation effort. Persons representing the parties shall be vested with full authority to resolve the issues being considered.

50.5 The mediator may employ all of the techniques commonly associated with mediation, including private caucuses with the parties, but the taking of oaths and the examination of witnesses shall not be permitted and no verbatim record of the proceeding shall be taken. The purpose of the mediation effort is to reach a mutually agreeable resolution of the dispute and there will be no procedural constraints regarding the review of the facts and arguments. There shall be no formal evidence rules. Written materials presented to the mediator will be returned to the party at the conclusion of the mediation meeting.

50.6 Mediation efforts will be informal in nature and shall not include written opinions or recommendations from the mediator. In the event that a grievance, which has been mediated, is appealed to arbitration, there shall be no reference in the arbitration proceeding to the fact that a mediation conference was or was not held. Nothing said or done by the mediator may be referenced or introduced into evidence at the arbitration hearing and nothing said or done by either party for the first time in the mediation conference may be used against in arbitration.

50.7 At the mediation conference the mediator shall first seek to assist the parties in reaching a mutually satisfactory settlement of the grievance, which is within the parameters of the collective bargaining agreement. If a settlement is reached a settlement agreement will be entered into at the mediation conference. The mediator shall not have the authority to compel the resolution of a grievance.

50.8 If a grievance remains unresolved at the end of the mediation session the mediator will provide an advisory as to how the grievance is likely to be decided if it is presented at arbitration. This opinion is non-binding and inadmissible in any subsequent arbitration proceeding.

50.9 If the parties do not accept the opinion of the mediator the Union may appeal the grievance to arbitration. All applicable time limits for appealing a grievance to arbitration contained in the parties' collective bargaining agreement shall commence on the day the advisory opinion is issued.

51.8 The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that may arise out of any determination that the Union failed to fairly represent a member of the bargaining unit during the exercise of his rights as provided by the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures herein contained.

ARTICLE 52 CONTRACT OUT/SUBCONTRACTING

52.1 The Employer reserves the right to contract or subcontract out work which, in the Employer's sole discretion, continued performance of by bargaining unit members is impractical. Such subcontracting shall not be done for the sole purpose of eroding the bargaining unit.

52.2 The Employer agrees to notify the Union in the event this Article is utilized, and shall meet and confer upon written request of the Union, allowing the Union to present a proposal where cost is no greater than the proposed subcontracting.

When a run is declared vacant for at least one (1) week or more, it shall be designated as a hold-down and offered to operators weekly in order of seniority.

53.2 - CALL-IN PAY

ARTICLE 54 CONFORMITY TO LAW

54.1 This Agreement shall be subject to and subordinated to any applicable present and future federal and state laws, and the invalidity of any provision(s) of this Agreement by reason of any such existing or future law shall not effect the validity of the surviving provisions.

54.2 If the enactment of legislation, or a determination by a court of final and competent jurisdiction (whether in a proceeding between the parties or in one not between the parties but controlling by reason of the facts) renders any portion of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, such legislation or decision shall not effect the validity of the surviving provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect as if such invalid provisions (s) thereof had not been included herein.

54.2 In the event a portion of this Agreement is rendered invalid, as set forth above, upon written notification of either party, the parties shall meet within thirty (30) days to negotiate a lawful alternative.

ARTICLE 56 OBLIGATION TO NEGOTIATE

56.1 The Employer and the Union acknowledge that during negotiations which preceded this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining/negotiations and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement.

56.2 Therefore, for the life of this Agreement, the Employer and the Union each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to negotiate collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to, or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated and signed this Agreement.
