

The following table outlines how transfer credits will be applied to the Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Toledo for students who completed an Associate of Arts degree via the Ohio Guaranteed Art History Transfer Pathway. The OGTP designation guarantees the transfer and applicability of credits, but does not guarantee admission to a program. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive, and students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.

Advising Notes: ¹ Assumes the student has completed the first two semesters of the foreign language sequence prior to entering The University of Toledo. See your advisor for approved culture courses. ² Some courses can also satisfy the Non-U.S. Culture requirement. ³ Related courses must be chosen from courses acceptable for major credit in studio art, anthropology, classical civilization, literature courses in English, or in a foreign or classical language (in addition to the college language requirement), basic courses in a second foreign language, history, music history or literature, philosophy or religion, theatre or film history, or in other areas approved by the advisor. ⁴ The college requirement is for two Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) courses, one in the major and one from any discipline. ARTH 3400 is the required major WAC course. Students may choose the second WAC course from any area. Depending on the course chosen, it may also fulfill a major elective, related, minor, or general elective requirement. ⁵ The University of Toledo requires a total of 124 credits hours for the B.A. in Art History. The total number of hours to complete the bachelor's degree represents a range of hours that may be needed depending on the individual course selections made during the associate degree program.
