State of Ohio Symbols

DID YOU KNOW...
Ohio is the only state that does not use the traditional rectangular flag design. Our state flag's design is known as a burgee.

State Flag

It was designed by John Eisenmann in 1902. It has one large blue triangle, representing Ohio's hills and valleys. The blue triangle surrounds a red and white circle that stands for the "O" in "Ohio". Its three red stripes and two white stripes represent Ohio's waterways and roads. The 17 stars on the triangle symbolize Ohio's entrance into the Union as the 17th state.

The State Motto

In 1866, Ohio adopted its first motto to be incorporated into the state seal. The motto was short-lived and as a result, Ohio went without a motto for the next 91 years. It wasn't until 1958, at the urging of a 12-year-old Cincinnati boy, that Ohio's current state motto "With God All Things Are Possible," was adopted.

Ohio has 88 Counties

Color in the counties that you have visited.

State Insect

In June 1975, the Ohio Legislature declared the common ladybug, officially known as the ladybird beetle, as the state insect. The ladybug was chosen for its attractive markings and helpful eating habits.

The ladybug is mostly red with a black head and black spots on its back.

State Flower

Ohio's state flower is the red carnation. It was adopted in 1904 in memory of President William McKinley. McKinley, who was born in Niles, Ohio, always wore a red carnation on his jacket lapel.

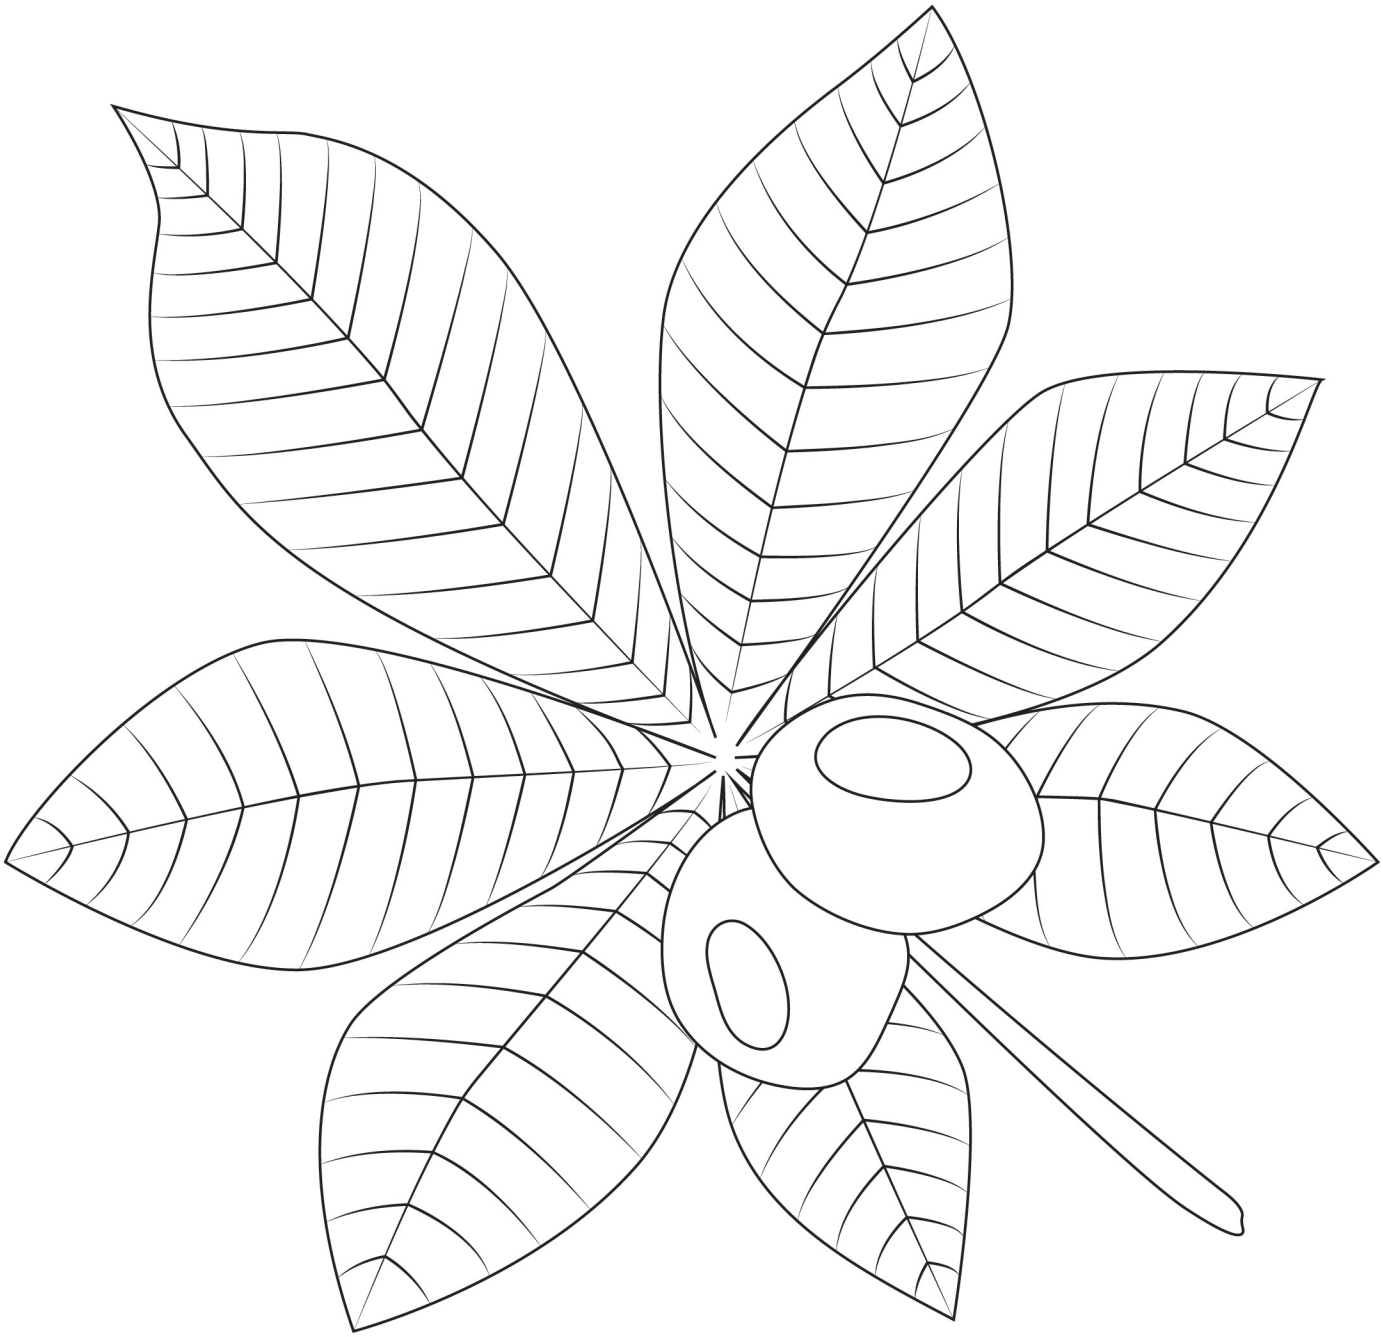

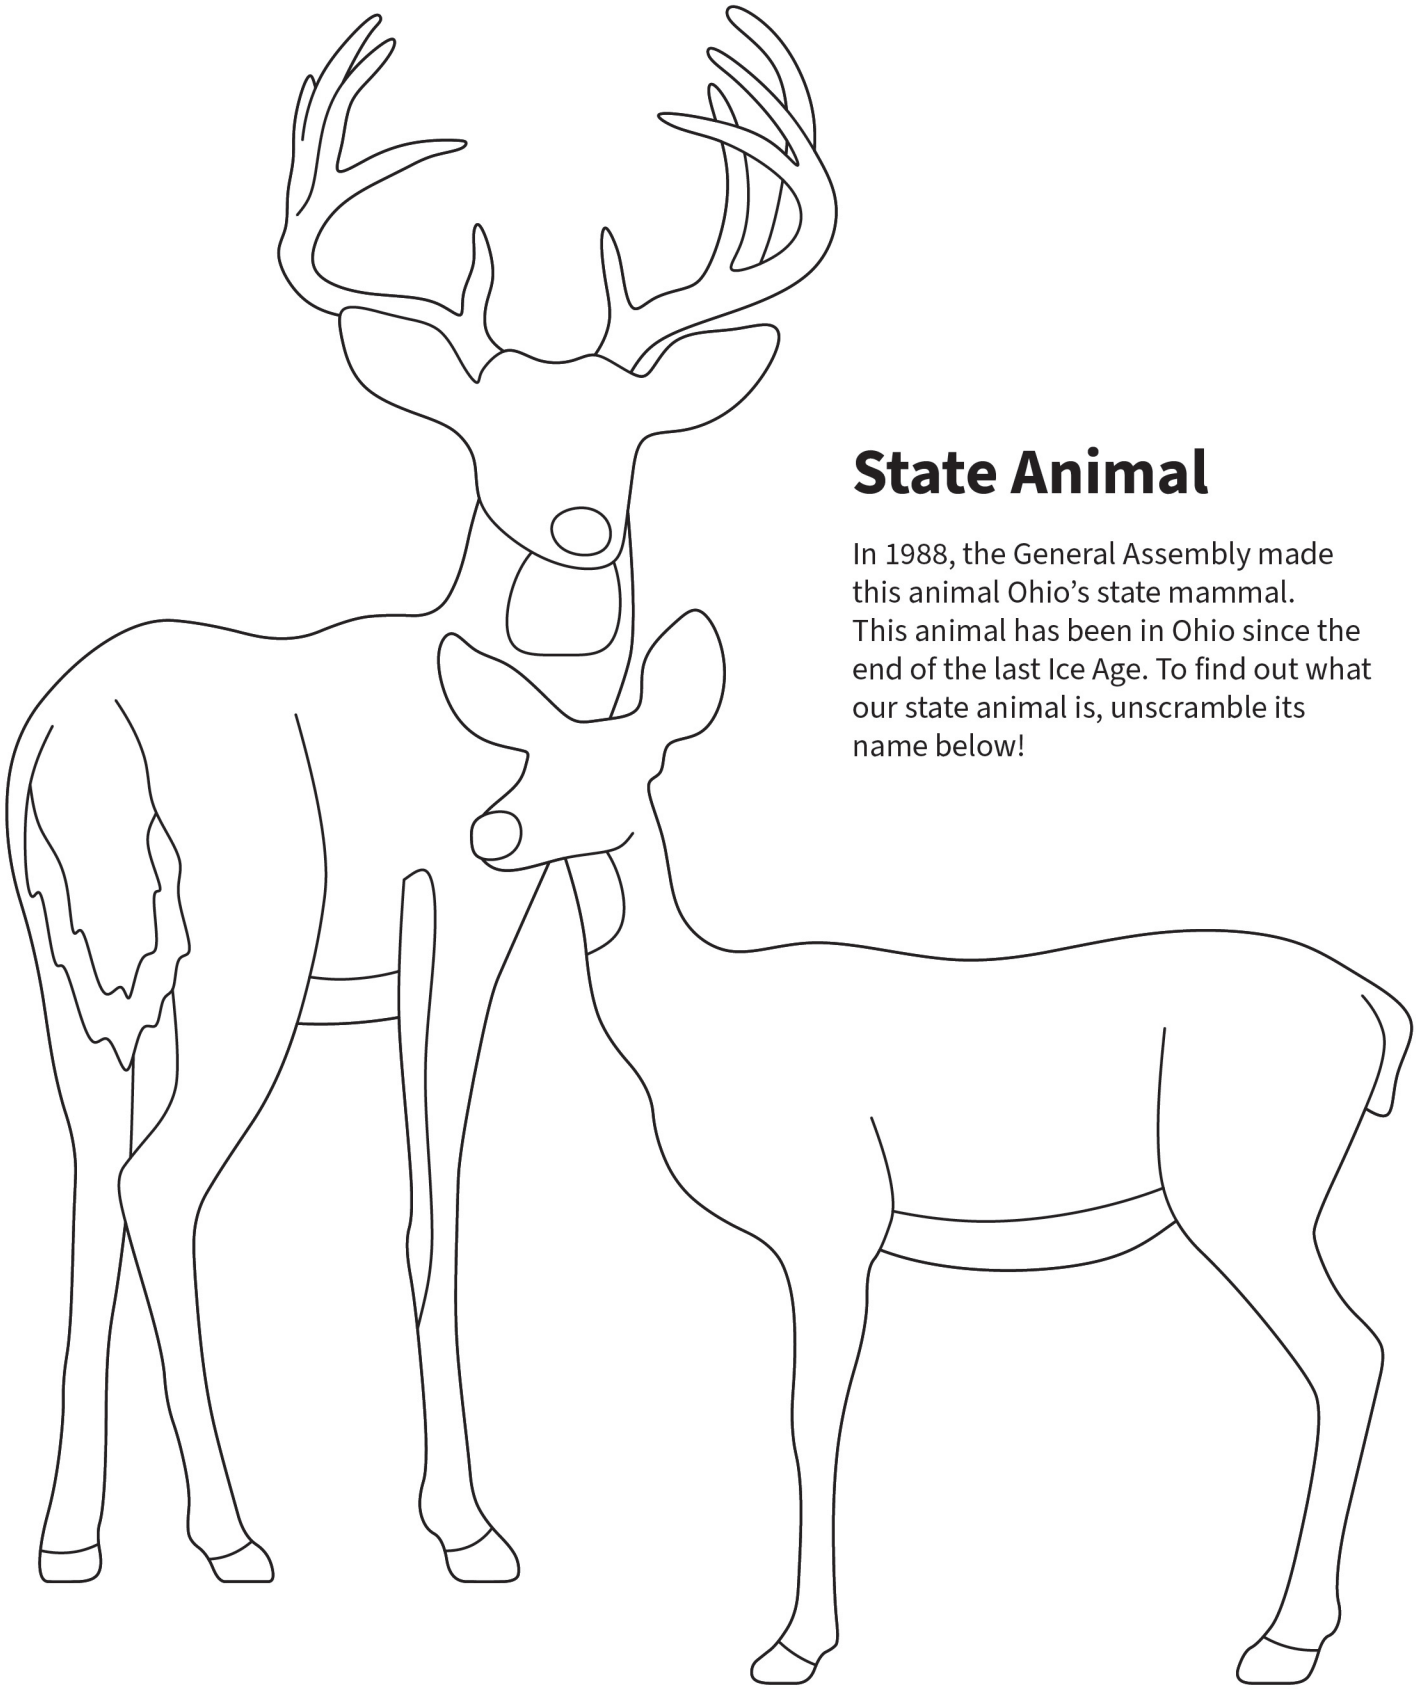

State Tree

In 1953, the Ohio legislature designated the Ohio Buckeye as Ohio's official state tree. The tree is called the buckeye because its nuts resemble the shape and color of a deer's eye. The leaves are normally green and the buckeyes are brown and tan, but you can color them any color you like.

DID YOU KNOW...

The buckeye tree has also provided Ohioans with their principal nickname — the Buckeyes. Ohioans have referred to themselves as Buckeyes since at least the election of 1840, when William Henry Harrison won the presidency.

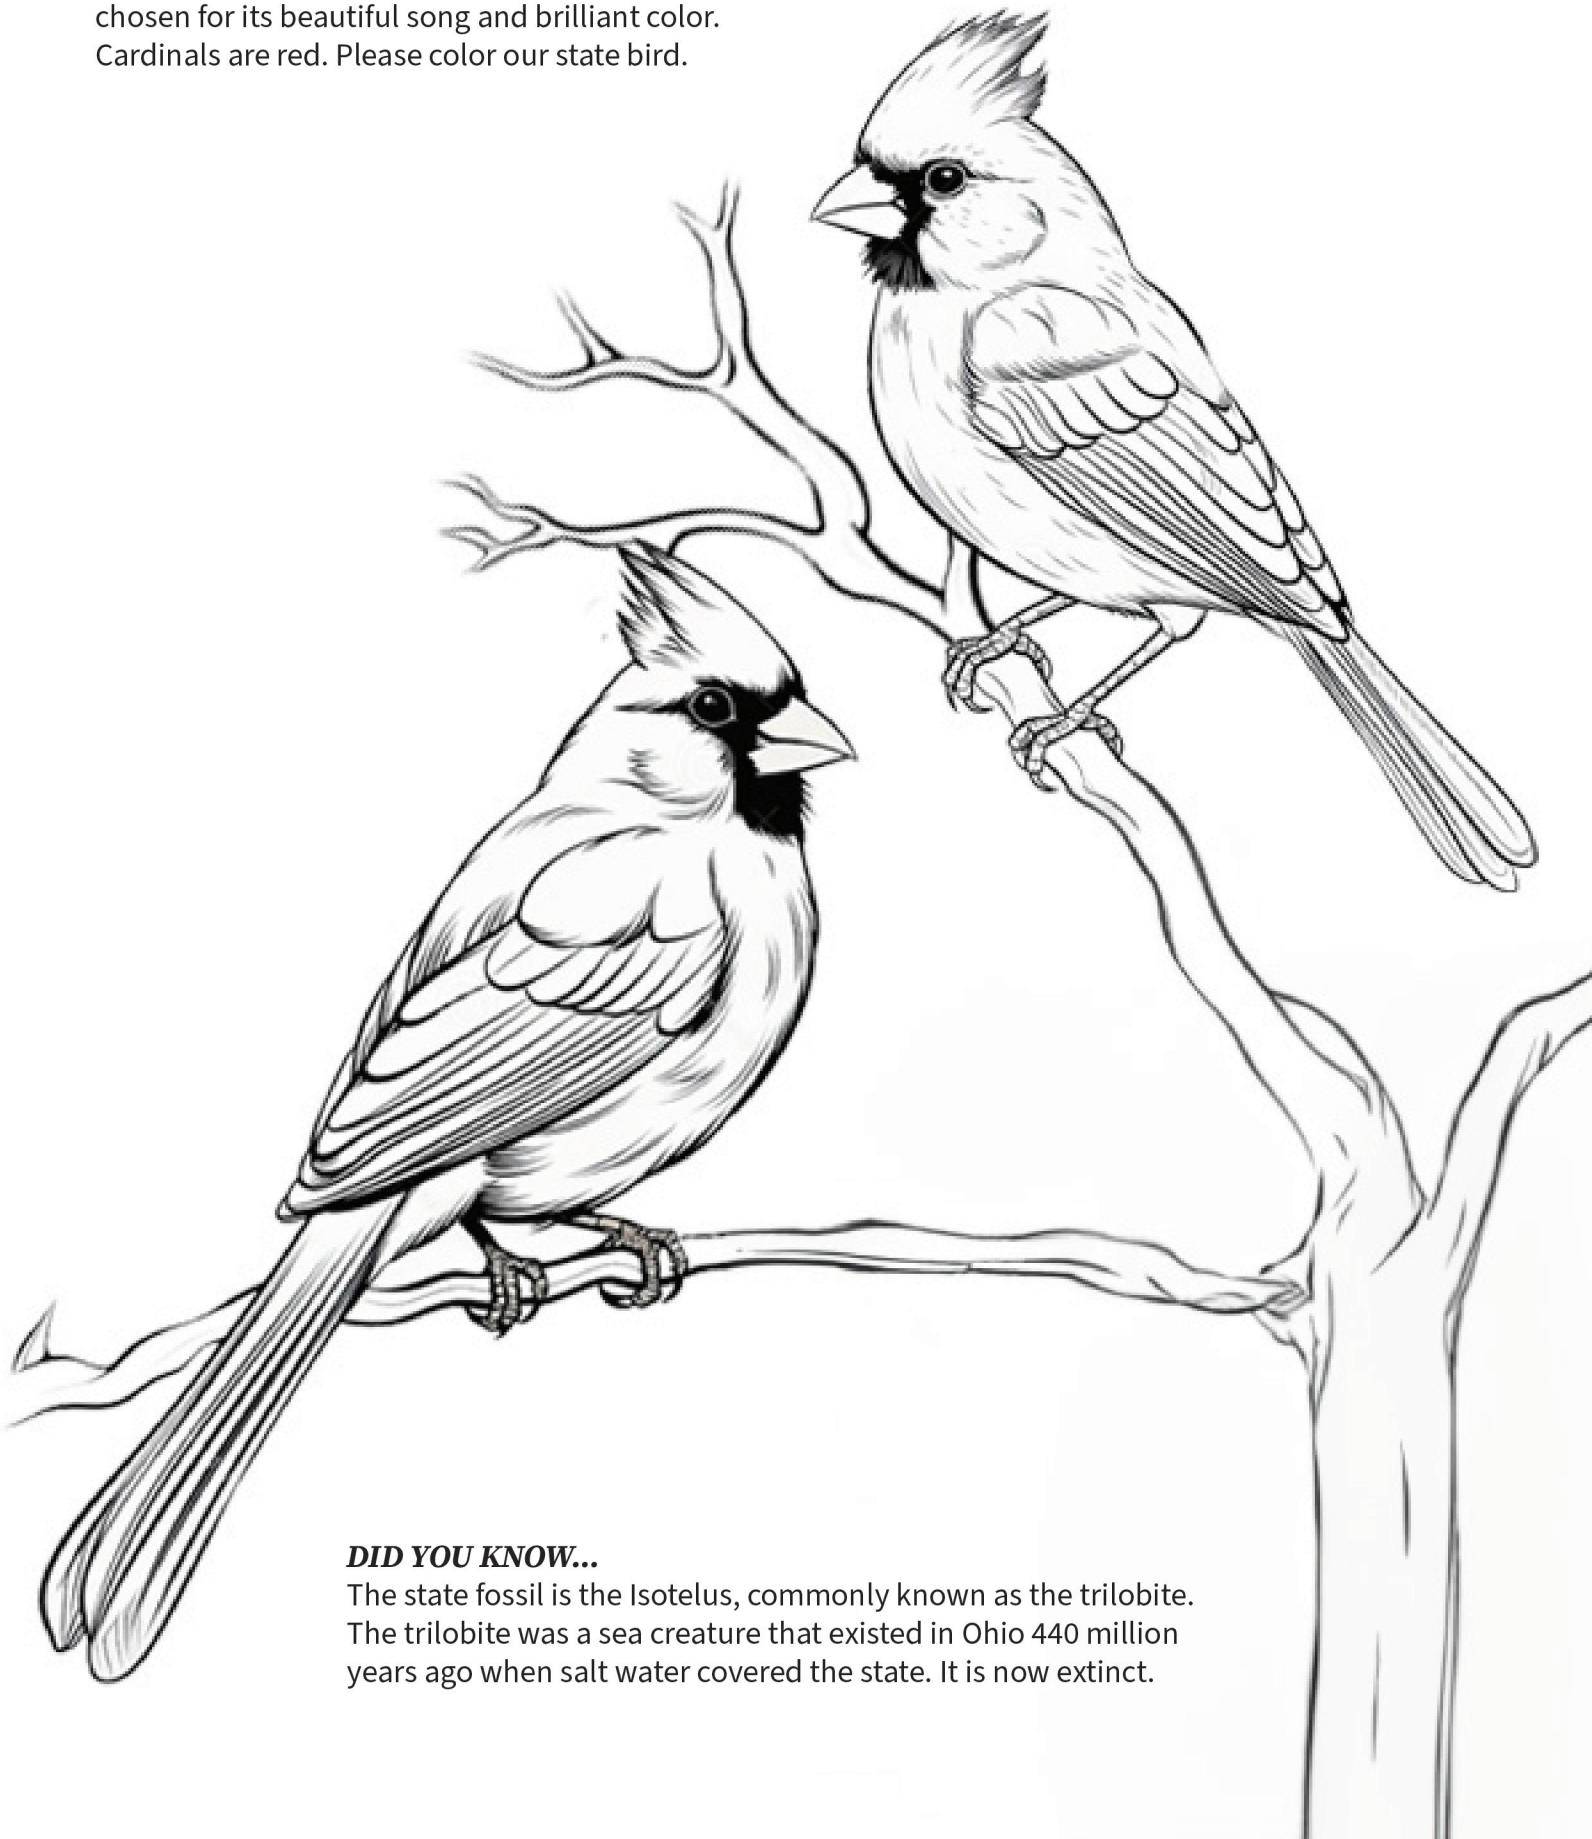

State Animal

In 1988, the General Assembly made this animal Ohio's state mammal. This animal has been in Ohio since the end of the last Ice Age. To find out what our state animal is, unscramble its name below!

HTIWE ATILDE EDRE

State Bird

The cardinal became the state bird in 1933. It was chosen for its beautiful song and brilliant color. Cardinals are red. Please color our state bird.

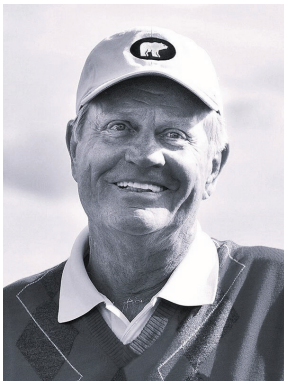

DID YOU KNOW...

The state fossil is the Isotelus, commonly known as the trilobite. The trilobite was a sea creature that existed in Ohio 440 million years ago when salt water covered the state. It is now extinct.
